Hawaiian Diacritical Marks

Waikīkī Improvement Association recognizes the use of diacritical marks (i.e., glottal stop (ʻ), macron (ā) in place names of Hawai'i, such as Waikīkī and Kalākaua Avenue and will include them whenever possible. We also respect the individual use (or not) of these markings for names of organizations and businesses.

There will also be times when we may not have a chance to add or change the markings in all of the articles submitted and when that happens, e kala mai.

Hawaiian Sets Standard for Onboard Hospitality with Redesigned 'Mea Ho'okipa Service'

In the first comprehensive redesign of its domestic onboard service product in more than a decade, Hawaiian Airlines has cemented its signature 'Mea Ho'okipa Service' as the gold standard in domestic air travel and the only authentic Hawai'i experience in air travel.

Hawaiian's 'Mea Ho'okipa' (translation: I am host) inflight service philosophy has long been embraced by travelers for its celebration of the culture, people and Aloha Spirit of Hawai'i. Reintroduced August 1 on all flights between Hawai'i and its 11 gateway cities in North America, Hawaiian has taken its acclaimed inflight service and made it even more enjoyable with enticing new made-in-Hawai'i products, Island-style complimentary meals and improved service offerings.

The new program was inspired by customer feedback, solicited by Hawaiian to further align its service with the things that customers value most in onboard service and amenities.

"We take pride in offering the best airline service to and throughout the Hawaiian Islands, but we believe in continual improvement and we're confident our guests will like what they see," commented Peter Ingram, Hawaiian's executive vice president and chief commercial officer. "In addition to offering the most comfortable cabins on wide-body aircraft serving Hawai'i, our onboard service has been completely redesigned to provide more of what our guests say they value most: delicious complimentary meals, local products and our friendly, attentive service."

Complimentary Meals, Wine and a New Signature Cocktail

With its new inflight hospitality program, Hawaiian is restoring a little elegance to onboard dining. "We're bringing back the 'good old days of flying' by making inflight dining a pleasant part of the travel experience, while showcasing the products and promoting the ambiance that makes Hawai'i so special," said Blaine Miyasato, Hawaiian's vice president of product development.

Hawaiian is continuing to offer complimentary full meals* at mealtimes to all customers on its North America flights – as any island family would do for their guests in their home – and its new menus designed by Executive Chef Chai Chaowasaree highlight the foods and flavors of the islands.

Also new to Hawaiian's meal service in the Main Cabin is a complimentary glass of red or white wine with lunch or dinner. Hawaiian's wines are personally selected by Hawai'i Master Sommelier Chuck Furuya.

Another new feature of Hawaiian's complimentary service is the offering of a new signature tropical cocktail featuring Koloa Rum from Kaua'i and an island-style snack, such as Maui Style Potato Chips, served two hours before landing to put travelers in an 'island' frame of mind before arriving, or to leave them with a final flavor of Hawai'i before returning home.

New Premium Island Meals

In addition to its complimentary meals, Hawaiian's premium meals for purchase in the Main Cabin now feature delicious new selections designed by Chef Chai that reflect the diversity of cultures and flavors that now characterize local cuisine in Hawai'i.

The complete meals feature mouth-watering entrées like a Kalua Pork Sandwich, Island-Style Chicken, Prawns with Cold Noodles, and Chinese Chicken Salad, and are complemented with Maui Style Potato Chips and Hawaiian Spring bottled water. Guests can also enjoy a complimentary glass of wine with their premium selection.

Pau Hana Snack Bar

Also new to its onboard service, the Pau Hana Snack Bar is an extension of Hawaiian's friendly galley service, where guests stop by to have drinks refilled, purchase island-style snacks like spam musubi or ramen noodles. Also available for purchase at the Pau Hana Snack Bar are fresh flower lei on flights to North America and Hawaiian Airlines branded gift items.

“The spirit of pau hana (translation: finish work) – of leaving work to go play, or leaving work to go home – is one of transformation,” said Miyasato. “Our new ‘Mea Ho’okipa Service’ is meant to transform rushed or anxious travelers into relaxed guests as they travel to and from Hawai‘i. We’ve redesigned our onboard experience to maximize our opportunities to transform our guests and share our aloha.”

Made-in-Hawai‘i Treats

A highlight of Hawaiian's new service is the showcasing of Hawai‘i products in its premium meal and snack offerings. Products like Primo Popcorn's Wasabi Ranch or Li Hing Pineapple flavored popcorn, Kona Chips with Furikake Seasoning, Guava Macadamia Kaua‘i Kookies, Tanioka's Li Hing Mango Slices and Hawaiian Host Chocolate Covered Macadamia Nuts are just some of the made-in- Hawai‘i treats that are offered for purchase at the Pau Hana Snack Bar.

New Service Enhancements

Hawaiian has also introduced the “Ho’okipa Desk” in departure lounges, where guests can pre- order inflight amenities such as premium meals, snacks or entertainment systems before they board their flight, get tips on what to do at their destination or learn more about their inflight experience.

Onboard, Hawaiian has also redesigned the orchestration of its inflight service to allow for more interaction between flight attendants and guests. In addition, flight attendants are now assigned to certain rows, allowing them to focus on fewer guests than before and have more time to talk story and serve each guest in a manner more befitting the Hawaiian tradition of hospitality.

“This is where ‘Mea Ho’okipa Service’ lives,” said Miyasato. “At the heart of the Hawaiian Airlines experience is the authentic hospitality of our people. The goal of our new service is to promote meaningful interactions with our guests where our employees can really shine.”

Hawaiian remains the only US carrier serving Hawai‘i that offers complimentary meals in all cabins.*

Halekulani Announces the Debut of L'Aperitif

Iconic hotel introduces one-of-a-kind epicurean concept as part of its 2012 Renewal

Halekulani, celebrated for its personalized service, masterful cuisine and innovation, announces the launch of a unique new bar concept, L'Aperitif. Inspired by the extraordinary French cocktail culture of the late 19th Century, L'Aperitif is located in La Mer, Halekulani's finest and Hawaii's longest consecutively ranked AAA Five Diamond Restaurant. The creation of this new aperitif experience is part of a comprehensive Renewal at Halekulani, incorporating the founding values that have made Halekulani an iconic global destination.

"This new historically-based bar concept is a nod to the Belle Époque – a period of French history when peace and prosperity allowed the arts and sophisticated Parisian social culture to reach unprecedented heights from the latter nineteenth century until the start of World War I. Reflecting the French neo-classical cuisine philosophy which is the enduring hallmark of La Mer, the aperitif was the very symbol of Belle Époque lifestyle that encouraged the period's remarkable joie de vivre, where individuals relaxed and celebrated life through fine spirits and social interaction," said Peter Shaindlin, Chief Operating Officer of Halekulani Corporation. "L'Aperitif pays tribute to this classical French tradition and cultural pastime while also celebrating Halekulani's precious legacy."

L'Aperitif may be enjoyed as a prelude to fine dining at La Mer or other Halekulani restaurants, or simply as its own destination experience. Conceived by Halekulani and executed in close collaboration with the legendary Ritz Paris and Head Barman Colin Field of its iconic Hemingway Bar, the elegant yet relaxed L'Aperitif spirits and amuse bouche offerings whet the appetite without overwhelming the senses. Field, long recognized as "Best Barman in the World" by Forbes and other luxury media institutions, consulted in the bar's overall redevelopment including staff training and creation of unique aperitif and menu pairings in tandem with Halekulani's renowned chefs.

Halekulani Executive Chef Vikram Garg and La Mer Chef de Cuisine Alexandre Trancher have created unique food pairings to complement L'Aperitif's cocktail offerings. Signature cocktails include The Serendipity and Hemingway Old Fashioned. Small samplings such as Oyster with Lychee Ginger Sorbet, Sumak Shrimp with Sweet Chili Aioli, Big Island Goat Cheese with Cinnamon Tuile and Pickled Beetroot are featured on the menu's Cocktail Accompaniments.

"L'Aperitif fuses Halekulani's indigenous Hawaiian hospitality and unmatched levels of personalized service and quality with The Ritz Paris' timeless elegance and incomparable sophistication, creating a consummate epicurean experience that is not duplicated anywhere else in the world," said Shaindlin.

L'Aperitif is open from 6pm to 10pm daily, reservations not required. Gentlemen are asked to wear long-sleeved collared shirts, jackets encouraged. As an elegant fine dining restaurant, La Mer restricts patrons to adults and children 8 years or older.

HAWAI'I WATERMAN HALL OF FAME TO HONOR FOUR OCEAN SPORTS LEGENDS, ROYAL SURFING ALI'I, AUGUST 23

The legacy of the waterman and all that it represents to Hawai'i's ocean sports community will be celebrated with the honoring of four renowned kama'aina by the Hawai'i Waterman Hall of Fame on Thursday, August 23, 6:00 p.m., at the Outrigger Canoe Club. The honorees are:

Ricky Grigg – Famed big-wave surfer and oceanographer.

Archie Kalepa – Beloved Maui waterman, lifeguard and ocean sports innovator.

Brian Keaulana – Accomplished surfer, waterman, and lifeguard extraordinaire.

Michael Tongg – Instrumental leader in the growth of canoe paddling statewide.

Also being honored are the ancient surfing ali'i of the Royal Family of Hawai'i:

HRH Prince David La'amea Kahalepouli Kawānanakoa

HRH Prince Edward Abnel Keli'iahonui

HRH Prince Jonah Kūhiō Kalaniana'ōle

HRH Princess Victoria Ka'ulani Kalaninuiāhilapa Iapa Kawēkiu-i-Luna lilo Cleghorn

The Hawai'i Waterman Hall of Fame Awards Dinner is presented by the Outrigger Duke Kahanamoku Foundation (ODKF) and Honolulu Star-Advertiser, with Publisher Dennis Francis serving as Honorary Chair. Along with paying tribute to the new Hall of Fame honorees, the evening's festivities will feature a concert by Henry Kapono and music by Maunaloa.

"We are honoring truly remarkable watermen who have meant so much to modern-day ocean sports in Hawai'i and whose influence is seen in generations of young people throughout our islands," said Tim Guard, event co-chair and ODKF board member.

Table sponsorships seating eight are available for $3,500, $2,500, and $1,000, with individual seats at $65 each. Net proceeds raised will benefit ODKF's college scholarships and athletic grants program. Tickets and information are available at www.DukeFoundation.org.

The Hawai'i Waterman Hall of Fame was initiated in 2010 to create a lasting tribute to the Hawaiian Islands' water sports legacy and honor the achievements of Hawai'i's standout watermen and waterwomen. The criteria used to select inductees are:

Keiki o ka 'āina / keiki o ke kai

Sustained outstanding contribution to the sport

International, national and local accomplishment and recognition

Past Hawai'i Waterman Hall of Fame honorees are Duke Kahanamoku, Eddie Aikau, Wally Froiseth, Fred Hemmings, Buffalo Keaulana, Rabbit Kekai, Keo Nakama, Nappy Napoleon, Rell Sunn, Peter Cole, Ethel Kukea, Aileen Soule, and Nainoa Thompson.

ODKF is a public, nonprofit foundation whose mission is to financially support the development of individuals and organizations that perpetuate the spirit and legacy of Duke Kahanamoku. ODKF has awarded college scholarships and athletic grants of approximately $1.8 million to 1,277 Hawai'i individuals and nonprofit organizations in water sports and volleyball since its formation in 1986, including $130,950 to 60 recipients in 2012. ALOHA FESTIVALS DEBUTS NEW POWER BAND

Merchandise sales will directly support Hawai'i's premier kama'aina festival

The Aloha Festivals is proud to debut a new item added to its merchandise selection for its 66th year – the Aloha Festivals power band. The black, durable wristband will be offered in addition to the traditional Aloha Festivals ribbon sold in past years, complete with a modern, fashionable look. Power bands and ribbons are both available for sale starting today.

“We’re excited to introduce the new Aloha Festivals power band, which we hope will encourage more local residents and visitors to support the Aloha Festivals and share the aloha spirit throughout this year’s events,” said Paul Tomonari, co-chair of the Aloha Festivals board of directors. “Each purchase of an Aloha Festivals power band or ribbon allows us to share the rich culture and heritage of Hawai’i with others through our free events throughout September.”

The general public is invited to support and take part in the 66th Annual Aloha Festivals with the purchase of an Aloha Festivals power band or ribbon, now available for purchase at select retailers on O’ahu and online. One hundred percent of all merchandise sales will directly support the Aloha Festivals, a not-for-profit 501(c)(3) organization. Power band and ribbon sales help defray the cost of the free events offered by the Aloha Festivals throughout September.

Those who purchase a power band or ribbon will have the chance to enter a sweepstakes for a Hawaiian Airlines round trip for two in coach class to Las Vegas or Manila and other fabulous prizes. In addition, Aloha Festivals has partnered with O’ahu hotels and businesses to give discounts to customers who show their support by wearing their 2012 power band or ribbon.

- ABC Stores
- Aloha Festivals events
- Cookie Corner O’ahu locations (by end of August)
- Cox Media Group, 900 Fort Street, Suite 700

ALOHA FESTIVALS DEBUTS NEW POWER BAND

Merchandise sales will directly support Hawai'i's premier kama'aina festival

The Aloha Festivals is proud to debut a new item added to its merchandise selection for its 66th year – the Aloha Festivals power band. The black, durable wristband will be offered in addition to the traditional Aloha Festivals ribbon sold in past years, complete with a modern, fashionable look. Power bands and ribbons are both available for sale starting today.

“We’re excited to introduce the new Aloha Festivals power band, which we hope will encourage more local residents and visitors to support the Aloha Festivals and share the aloha spirit throughout this year’s events,” said Paul Tomonari, co-chair of the Aloha Festivals board of directors. “Each purchase of an Aloha Festivals power band or ribbon allows us to share the rich culture and heritage of Hawai'i with others through our free events throughout September.”

The general public is invited to support and take part in the 66th Annual Aloha Festivals with the purchase of an Aloha Festivals power band or ribbon, now available for purchase at select retailers on O’ahu and online. One hundred percent of all merchandise sales will directly support the Aloha Festivals, a not-for-profit 501(c)(3) organization. Power band and ribbon sales help defray the cost of the free events offered by the Aloha Festivals throughout September.

Those who purchase a power band or ribbon will have the chance to enter a sweepstakes for a Hawaiian Airlines round trip for two in coach class to Las Vegas or Manila and other fabulous prizes. In addition, Aloha Festivals has partnered with O’ahu hotels and businesses to give discounts to customers who show their support by wearing their 2012 power band or ribbon.
