Aloha Festivals Presents the 2012 Royal Court

Aloha Festivals is proud to announce the members of its 2012 Royal Court. Since 1946, the Aloha Festivals Royal Court has played an essential role in the Aloha Festivals, serving as a symbol of Hawaiian heritage passed down through generations of Hawaiians. The 2012 Royal Court will appear at all Aloha Festivals events this September, kicking off the 66th Annual Aloha Festivals on September 6 with the Royal Court Investiture at 3:00 p.m. at the Hilton Hawaiian Village, and Opening Ceremony at 5:00 p.m. at the Royal Hawaiian Center, Royal Grove.

Selection of the Royal Court was based on the following criteria: Hawaiian ancestry, ability to make various appearances during the reigning year from September 2012 to August 2013, and age requirements of 35 and older for king and queen

Campaign 2012 Dateline Waikīkī

The Waikīkī Improvement Association urges you to attend one or both of the Campaign 2012 candidate forums coming soon to Waikīkī. On September 20th, 7:00 PM at the Sheraton Waikīkī, the Waikīkī Neighborhood Board is hosting a public candidate's night. On October 4th, from 9:00 AM to 11:00 AM at the Hilton Hawaiian Village, the Hawai'i Lodging & Tourism Association is hosting a candidate forum. Attendance at these forums is important as we want the candidates to be aware of the issues affecting Waikīkī and the interest of the Waikīkī community in having our issues addressed.

applicants and 16 to 18 for prince and princess applicants. Scholarships will be awarded to the prince and princess after their reign to further their education after high school.

Royal Court Members

Mō'i Kāne (King) – Aldo Siegfried Kuie'e

Aldo, who is a resident of Salt Lake, is a sheriff and dispatcher with the Department of Public Safety. He also works part time for Above and Beyond Delivery. A graduate of Damien Memorial School, he is proud to be chosen as the Mō'i Kāne, representing his ancestors and heritage. In his free time, Aldo enjoys playing golf and spending time with his wife and family.

Mō'i Wahine (Queen) – Lydia U'ilani Kuie'e

Lydia, who has previously served as a lady-in-waiting on the Royal Court, is an assistant manager at Contractor's License Center. She is excited to serve as the Mō'i Wahine and feels that it is a humbling opportunity to represent Hawaiian royalty. A graduate of James B. Castle High School, Lydia is a resident of Salt Lake and enjoys dancing hula and spending time with her husband and family. She also enjoys doing volunteer work and is a certified licensed marriage official.

Kamāli'i Kāne (Prince) – Noah Ho'oku'ikapono Borden

A graduate of Kamehameha Schools, Noah, who is a resident of Pearl City, is a student at Leeward Community College. He is proud to serve on the Royal Court and feels that it is an opportunity to be exposed to a side of Hawaiian culture that is often not experienced by others, while also educating others about Hawaiian traditions and values. During his free time, Noah enjoys playing football and basketball and also serves as a Boy Scout.

Kamāli'i Wahine (Princess) – Hope Hokumalamalama'okalani Kikuna Whitney

Nanakuli resident Hope is a senior at Hālau Kū Mana Public Charter School and plans to attend the University of Hawai'i at Hilo next fall. She feels that her participation in the Royal Court is a great honor and will allow her to represent her ancestors and culture in the greatest way possible. In her spare time, Hope serves on her school's student council and also enjoys spending time with her family and paddling for Leeward Kai Canoe Club.

The 2012 Aloha Festivals Royal Court members were introduced on Thursday, September 6, at 3:00 p.m. at the Hilton Hawaiian Village. The public was invited to attend as the Royal Court members received their royal cloak, helmet, head feather lei and other symbols of their station. Traditional chant and hula kāhiko highlighted the event, followed by an Opening Ceremony at 5:00 p.m. at the Royal Hawaiian Center, Royal Grove.

About Aloha Festivals

Aloha Festivals was first held in 1946 as Aloha Week, and over the past six and a half decades has become a celebration of Hawaiian culture, integrating the traditions and cultures of the Islands through music, dance, cuisine and art. All festivities are coordinated by a volunteer board of directors. Aloha Festivals is funded by the Hawai'i Tourism Authority, corporate and private sponsorships, and sales of Aloha Festivals ribbons and merchandise.

The Waikīkī Ho'olaule'a is next Saturday and Floral Parade on September 22.

THE ART OF FOOD & WINE BY HALEKULANI

“Sourcing Locally, Cooking Globally”

Promotion to support the Culinary Institute of the Pacific

Halekulani, celebrated for its personalized service, masterful cuisine and innovation, invites guests to experience a special month-long series of dinner menus following the acclaimed annual Hawaii Food & Wine Festival.

Specially created for each of Halekulani's restaurants by Executive Chef Vikram Garg, in concert with Pastry Chef Mark Freischmidt, this eco-inspired epicurean experience uses ingredients sourced in Hawaii, in an effort to support local farmers, in practice of “Sourcing Locally, Cooking Globally.”

“Each restaurant showcases a multi-course menu offered with a wine pairing. While each menu is inspired by a different global region, the overriding theme is one of sustainability and corporate responsibility in supporting an environmentally conscious philosophy,” said Ulrich Krauer, General Manager of Halekulani.

From the mountains to the sea, from Hilo to Hanalei, the bounty of the Islands is fully evident in its ties to the land; Chef Garg sourced ingredients such as fresh hearts of palm, nurtured high on the slopes of Hawai'i, and the only place in the country to produce hearts of palm; and Kahuku Farms eggplant, grown by third-generation family farmers who grew up as neighbors in the close knit North Shore enclave.

From the ocean, culinary offerings include sweet-tasting Kaua'i shrimp, naturally grown in saltwater from the pristine coastline of the Garden Isle; and Kona lobsters, swimming in its deep seawater pens filled with clear, clean, cold seawater, at one of the largest live Maine Lobster holding facilities outside the Atlantic seaboard. A key feature on the Orchids menu, Poached Kona Lobster, Hearts of Palm Carpaccio, Cardamom Lemon Curd, was a signature dish at the 2011 Hawaii Food & Wine Festival gala dinner.

The special dinner menus will be offered at all Halekulani restaurants - La Mer, Orchids, House Without A Key, and Lewers Lounge from September 10 - 30. A percentage of sales will be donated to the Culinary Institute of Pacific. The featured menus are:

Locally Owned Bikini Beach Café Serves Up Seaside Fare at Royal Hawaiian Center

Featuring delicious backyard barbecue favorites to brighten your beach day

Hungry beachgoers can enjoy a variety of 'ono (delicious) grab-and-go meals at Bikini Beach Café now conveniently open steps from Waikiki Beach near The Cheesecake Factory on level 1 of Building C at Royal Hawaiian Center.

"We are thrilled to be in such a prime location along the beach pathway at Royal Hawaiian Center," said owner Darryl Lee, an alumnus of Kamehameha Schools. "Our site provides a great opportunity to serve customers who want a quick and tasty meal on their way to and from the sun, sand and surf."

Chef Didi Todd, a veteran in Hawai'i's culinary industry who has been servicing customers for nearly 40 years, partnered with Lee to create a menu both visitors and kama'aina can enjoy. In addition to a selection of backyard barbeque favorites including cheeseburgers, chili dogs and nachos, the eatery offers a signature Caribbean-inspired Barbacoa Bun filled with slow braised, chipotle lime marinated shredded beef topped with chipotle mayo and a lime cabbage slaw.

Bikini Beach Cafe's signature Rainbow Shave Ice with Azuki Beans.

"We're excited to welcome locally owned Bikini Beach Café, which opened in perfect time for Waikiki's busy summer season," said Marleen 'Ākau, general manager of Royal Hawaiian Center. "Their mouthwatering meals will hit the spot for customers enjoying a sunny beach day."

Open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily, the eatery's menu includes hot dogs for $4.50, hamburgers for $5, rainbow shave ice for $4 and the signature Barbacoa Bun for $7.50. For an additional $3, customers can enjoy a combination meal with "Bikini Tots" and a fountain drink.

"Waikiki Beach is already an amazing experience that we hope to enhance with our flavorful dishes and refreshing shave ice," Lee added.

For more information about Bikini Beach Café call (808) 923-3383.

Prince Resorts Hawaii Promotes Darla Won to Director of Promotions, Media and Brand Management

Prince Resorts Hawaii announced today the appointment of Darla Won to Director of Promotions, Media and Brand Management.

Won joined the hotel group 15 years ago as a Reservations Agent for the Hawaii Prince Hotel Waikiki. She recently served as Manager, Strategic Planning and Marketing and prior to that was the Director of Wholesale Travel for Prince Resorts Hawaii.

"We are very pleased to promote Darla who has a deep understanding of the essence of Prince brand from her many years with the company," said Donn Takahashi, president of Prince Resorts Hawaii. "We have great confidence in her ability to direct our brand strategy and maximize the effectiveness of our marketing communications and promotional offerings."

In addition to her new responsibilities, Won handles liaison with Prince's public relations firm and manages social media marketing.

Won holds a Bachelor of Science Degree in Hotel, Restaurant and Institutional Management from Pennsylvania State University.

Aston Hotels & Resorts Names Robin Ide, April Holley and Candy Leung to Management Positions

Three accomplished professionals have recently been named to management positions by Aston Hotels & Resorts.

Robin Ide (left) joins the Aston Hotels & Resorts team as director of sales for the Aston Waikiki Beach Hotel, where she will focus primarily on corporate, government, and military sales initiatives for the hotel. She is a member of Hawaii Visitors and Convention Bureau's CMI (Conventions, Meetings & Incentives) marketing advisory committee, on the board of the Pacific Asia Travel Association and a member of numerous other industry boards and organizations. Ide previously served as director of sales for Turtle Bay Resort.

April Holley (center) joins Aston Hotels & Resorts as director of information technology services (ITS), bringing extensive experience in programming, website development, network design and overall management of resort technology. Her focus will be overseeing technology initiatives within the company. Most recently, she was director of information systems for The Resort Collection of Panama City Beach in Florida. Beyond the development and operation of hotel industry technology systems, Holley worked in creating database solutions for small to mid-size businesses.

Candy Leung (right) has been named revenue manager for Aston Hotels & Resorts. Prior to joining Aston, Leung was corporate auditor for Prince Resorts Hawaii, an enterprise risk services senior consultant for Deloitte LLP and an audit senior associate for KPMG, LLP. She holds a Master of Management in hospitality from Cornell University and a Bachelor of Science from University of California at Berkley.

Hawaii Prince Hotel Waikiki Promotes Aaron Miyakawa to Director of Restaurants and Special Events

The Hawaii Prince Hotel Waikiki and Golf Club announced today the promotion of Aaron Miyakawa to director of restaurants and special events.

Miyakawa joined the hotel in 1995 as part of the wait staff at the Prince Court restaurant and worked his way up to room service manager and then to manager of Hakone and Prince Court restaurants. Most recently he served as the general manager of Prince Court and The Reef Lounge.

"Aaron has shown exceptional growth during his years at our hotel and has become an integral part of our food and beverage team," said Wade Gesteuyala, hotel manager at Hawai'i Prince Hotel Waikiki and Golf Club. "We look forward to seeing him thrive in his new role."

As the director of restaurants and special events, Miyakawa will be responsible for the daily operations of all food and beverage outlets and will also work to expand special event offerings.

Miyakawa is a graduate of the University of Hawaii at Manoa.

A stunning display of talent by island musician Kamakakehau Fernandez has earned him the winning title of this year's 4th annual Kani Ka Pila Grille Talent Search. The five finalists were initially selected based on a sample music performance submitted by DVD or online link, and later evaluated by their final performances on Saturday, August 18, 2012, at the Made in Hawaii Festival. Fernandez receives a one-month paid contract to perform weekly this September at Kani Ka Pila Grille, located poolside Outrigger Reef on the Beach, as well as complimentary studio time at Honolulu Community College's Mike Curb MELE Studios.

"Kamakakehau's traditional Hawaiian songs and smooth falsetto voice impressed the judges and wowed the crowd at this year's Kani Ka Pila Grille Talent Search," said Luana Maitland, ambassador of aloha and music director at Kani Ka Pila Grille. "We can't wait to introduce him to our guests in September – his music will definitely be a special treat for our patrons."

Fernandez will be performing at Kani Ka Pila Grille every Thursday night throughout the month of September and at Waikiki Beach Walk on October 30. Additionally, the four remaining finalists from the talent search will perform for one night each per week at both Kani Ka Pila Grille and Waikiki Beach Walk throughout the month of October. All Kani Ka Pila performances are 6 p.m. – 9 p.m.; Waikiki Beach Walk performances are 5 p.m. – 6 p.m. A complete schedule of appearances includes:

- Kamakakehau Fernandez: Kani Ka Pila Grille, September 6, 13, 20, 27; and Waikiki Beach Walk, October 30
- Simply Sedd: Kani Ka Pila Grille, October 4; and Waikiki Beach Walk, October 2
- K.B. Riley: Kani Ka Pila Grille, October 11; and Waikiki Beach Walk, October 9
- Halawa: Kani Ka Pila Grille, October 18; and Waikiki Beach Walk, October 16
- Coyne Street: Kani Ka Pila Grille, October 25; and Waikiki Beach Walk, October 23

Fernandez is often described as having a "Hawaiian heart and soul." He was born in Arkansas, adopted at six-weeks-old, and raised on the island of Maui. He has studied Hawaiian culture and is proud to be a fluent Hawaiian language speaker. Fernandez credits his family and home for their integral role in shaping him into the singer and musician he is today.

Kani Ka Pila Grille is open daily from 6:30 a.m. to 10 p.m. For reservation or restaurant information, call (808) 924-4990

100K Homes Oahu is a community-driven movement to identify and house the 100 most vulnerable homeless residents on Oahu by September 30, 2014. This effort to end homelessness is modeled after the national 100,000 Homes campaign, followed by over 150 communities including Hilo, Hawaii.

The 100K Homes Oahu movement will save lives, save money, and improve the quality of life for everyone in our community.

We Need Your Help!

THE PLAN

Identify the 100 Most Vulnerable

Registry Week: September 16 – 21, 2012

Volunteer teams, led by social service agencies, will survey and photograph homeless populations in urban Honolulu, Waianae and Waikiki. The information will be used to identify the 100 most vulnerable homeless residents based on their health and length of time experiencing homelessness.

Secure Housing and Support Services

Identify resources that will result in permanent housing solutions.

Move People into Housing

Move the 100 most vulnerable homeless into housing and provide support to keep them housed.

Looking Back / Looking Forward
Presented by the Waikīkī Improvement Association (WIA)

Twenty years ago in 1992 the WIA along with many allies in the community went through a planning process titled Waikīkī 20/20. This year, WIA has begun an initiative to create the 2012 version of Waikīkī 20/20 to look back 20 years to review what we have accomplished as a community in Waikīkī and forward 20 years to where we go from here. Join us as we gather more than 25 speakers from the public and private sectors to engage us in conversation and planning for the next 20 years of Waikīkī's future.

Waikīkī 20/20 Conference

Looking Back / Looking Forward

Presented by the Waikīkī Improvement Association (WIA)

For many years, the Waikīkī Improvement Association (WIA) has engaged in ongoing discussions with stakeholders to help make Waikīkī more livable and attractive to residents and visitors. Twenty years ago, with the help of many residents and businesses, the WIA held the first Waikīkī 20/20 with a goal of developing planning recommendations for the future of Waikīkī. We've come a long way since then. Now, as we look back over the past 20 years and the results of that conference, the WIA is bringing back Waikīkī 20/20 to review what has been accomplished and to look ahead at the next two decades.

We invite you to join us on October 16, 2012 at the Hawai'i Convention Center from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. More than 25 speakers from the public and private sectors of Hawai'i's business community will gather to revive the discussion and re-engage the community about Waikīkī's future, with the goal of developing a working plan in the six to eight months following the conference.

A range of experts from different industries will make presentations on topics and issues that most affect Waikīkī, such as the Waikīkī Beach nourishment program; upgrading of Waikīkī amenities and common areas; expansions in Waikīkī's retail market; transportation; energy and sustainability and much more!

Waikīkī 20/20 happens only once every 20 years, and the improvement of Waikīkī is vital to the future of Hawai'i's most vibrant community, and its most powerful economic engine.

We hope you will join us in supporting this important initiative. To register for the Waikīkī 20/20 Conference and our annual WIA meeting, please download the program and registration form for more information.

Mahalo nui loa,

Rick Egged
President
Waikīkī Improvement Association

August 19 – Teresa Bright

Teresa Bright is an award-winning vocalist who is universally recognized as one of Hawai'i's top singers. The Hawai'i Academy of Recording Arts has awarded her its top Female Vocalist of the Year honor. Bright has recorded many albums including Self Portrait, Painted Tradition, A Bright Hawaiian Christmas, Ka Pilina, Quiet Nights, A Christmas Season's Delight, Lei Ana and A Gallery. Hers is a voice crystalline, sultry, ethereal, powerful, touched with jazz and a multitude of color. She also has a huge following in Japan, where she performs often. Bright has written and recorded multiple commercial jingles for Max Factor, NTT Japan, Sapporo Beer, Toyota and Japan Airlines.

September 16 – Ledward Ka'apana

Ledward Ka'apana's mastery of stringed instruments, particularly the slack key guitar, and his extraordinary baritone and falsetto voices have made him a musical legend. With easygoing style and kolohe (rascal) charm, he has built a loyal corps of Led Heads from Brussels to his birthplace on the Big Island of Hawaii, thrilling his audiences for more than 40 years. Ka'apana has earned four Grammy nominations in his own right and two awards for his slack key compilations. Sharing his love of slack key guitar, Ka'apana has toured the U.S. mainland as well as internationally in Belgium, Germany, Canada, Japan, and Tahiti.
