SOLD OUT: Swing for Wishes Tournament

Organizers are still looking for donations and public involvement at Lighting Ceremony

Hyatt Regency Waikiki Beach Resort and Spa announces that Swing for Wishes, the annual golf fundraising tournament for Make-A-Wish® Hawaii, is now sold out. The event which attracts hundreds of golfers to the Hawaii Prince Golf Club every October is expected to contribute over $90,000 to bringing hope, strength and joy to island families in 2012. The tournament includes an exciting day on the links followed by an enjoyable evening with dinner and an auction. A public Lighting Ceremony is held each year to celebrate the campaign. This year's event is November 28 at 5 p.m. in the Great Hall of Hyatt Regency Waikiki Beach.

"We are thrilled to have the tournament sell out before October even gets underway. We know that right now we will break our own records in the amount of money donated to Make-A-Wish Hawaii. The auction is also a major donation generator for the campaign. This year we are aiming to raise $30,000 through the auction alone in celebration of the 30th anniversary of Make-A-Wish Hawaii. That's an ambitious plan so we are hoping to receive additional donations of prizes before event day," says Jerry Westenhaver general manager at Hyatt Regency Waikiki Beach Resort and Spa.

Every year, through the Swing for Wishes campaign, Hyatt Regency Waikiki Beach Resort and Spa and their generous supporters make wishes come true for children living throughout Hawaii that have been diagnosed with life-threatening medical conditions. The Swing for Wishes campaign includes an annual golf tournament as well as an incredible silent auction and dinner. As a result, in five years, nearly $300,000 has been raised which has enabled Make-A-Wish Hawaii to grant the wishes of over two dozen children. Platinum sponsors this year include AAI, JD Painting, Knitec, Pflueger Honda, PWC, and Schindler Elevator. Information available at swingforwishes.com

October 21 – Natalie Ai Kamaau

One of Hawaii's best kept secrets, Natalie Ai Kamaau is no stranger to Hawaiian music. Natalie started turning heads when she was just a teenager, singing alongside her father, Howard Ai, for Halau Hula Olana. It wasn't long before Natalie began stealing the show. She garnered the coveted title of Miss Aloha Hula in 1990, but it was her angelic voice that really caught people's attention. In 2006, Kamaau's first solo album "E," captured the Na Hoku Hanohano "Female Vocalist of the Year" award, then again in 2009 for her album "I." Kamaau's voice soars effortlessly through guitar, bass, ukulele, and piano.

November 18 – KAPALA

KAPALA is a unique blend of music and good friends who have come together to make their own imprint on today's music scene. The members of KAPALA have backed up or been a part of Hawaii's finest groups and it is from this experience that KAPALA draw's its inspiration. KAPALA combines traditional and contemporary Hawaiian music with ethnic, jazz, rock, country, urban and soul influences, creating a trailblazing style of music that is uniquely infectious, innovative and at the forefront of today's music scene.

Hawaiian Adding Capacity to Auckland Service with 294-Seat A330 Strong Customer Demand for New Route Launching March 13, 2013

Hawaiian Airlines is responding to continued strong demand for its impending service to Auckland, New Zealand, with the introduction of its 294-seat Airbus A330-200 on the route, instead of its 264-seat Boeing 767-300ER aircraft, as previously announced.

Hawaiian is launching thrice-weekly nonstop service between Honolulu and Auckland on March 13, 2013. The larger, wide-body A330 will provide an additional 30 seats per flight, along with a 25 percent increase in cargo space. Annually, the A330 will provide Hawai'i with nearly 46,000 new air seats from New Zealand.

"We're thrilled with how travelers have embraced our New Zealand service and pleased to be increasing our commitment to the Honolulu-Auckland route by adding more capacity with the A330," said Peter Ingram, Hawaiian's executive vice president and chief commercial officer.

"The combination of Hawaiian's nonstop flights and enjoyment of our onboard hospitality experience is resonating with our new customers in New Zealand, as well as travelers from Hawai'i and the U.S. mainland who are eager to visit this beautiful country."

Hawaiian will be the only U.S. carrier flying into Auckland. The company's market research indicates that Hawai'i is an underserved market for New Zealand, as figures show there are currently 30 percent fewer visitor arrivals from New Zealand than in 1999 when more nonstop flights were offered between the two destinations.

Honolulu to Auckland Starting at $992 Round-trip

Round-trip fares from Honolulu to Auckland, including all taxes, start at $992 for the travel periods of March 13 – April 25, 2013; May 13 – July 18, 2013; and August 6 – October 3, 2013. Prices are subject to change and based on seat availability.

Great round-trip fares are also available for flights to Auckland from the Neighbor Islands and gateway cities served by Hawaiian in North America, with convenient same-day connections in Honolulu, avoiding the need to change airlines or terminals. In addition, travelers can make stopovers on O'ahu for no additional charge.

Tickets can be purchased online at HawaiianAirlines.com, by calling Hawaiian's reservations department toll-free at 1-800-367-5320, or through any professional travel agent.

A330 Special Amenities

Hawaiian's A330 offers new amenities that have been a hit with customers, highlighted by the personal on-demand entertainment system for each seat, increased legroom, and the roomy interior.

With high-resolution LCD touch-screen monitors in each seatback, the A330's state-of-the-art entertainment system lets customers choose from a wide range of movies, TV programs, music, and video games, while also offering a USB port for the use of their own personal media players. Customers sitting in Business Class will also enjoy iPod compatibility.

In addition to the comforts of Hawaiian's A330 aircraft, travelers will enjoy complimentary meals in both cabins and Hawaiian's signature inflight hospitality celebrating the culture, people and Aloha Spirit of the Hawaiian Islands.

Flight Schedule

Beginning March 13, Hawaiian's Flight HA 445 will depart Honolulu International Airport at 1:45 p.m. every Monday, Wednesday and Friday, cross the international dateline, and land at Auckland Airport at 9:55 p.m. the following day.

Beginning March 14, the return flight HA 446 will depart Auckland at 11:55 p.m. every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, cross the international dateline, and arrive in Honolulu at 9:45 a.m. the same day.
