Ho'owehiwehi Award - Hana Iki
Hilton Hawaiian Village –CORAL BALLROOM

Hilton Hawaiian Village Waikiki Beach Resort completed a $7.6 million makeover of its 27,054 square-foot Coral Ballroom, located in the resort's Mid-Pacific Conference Center.

Their intent was to pay homage to the rich cultural heritage of the Coral Ballroom, its extensive coral collection and the original murals, – they have retained what is important and appropriate, and it is featured in a respectful and elegant way. The interior architectural envelope has been completely redesigned to reflect the new, contemporary design direction of Hilton Worldwide. The color palette is relatively neutral, incorporating accents of the unique colors found in the many types of coral.

Hyatt Regency Waikiki Beach Resort & Spa
Third Floor Renovation

The $13 million renovation completed in October, 2011, at Hyatt Regency Waikiki Beach Resort and Spa has created an inviting area for residents and travelers from around the globe. The work transformed previously closed areas into an open and airy atmosphere complete with a complimentary spirit of aloha and cosmopolitan luxury. The result was to have a reenergized property in time for APEC when the world was focused on Waikiki.

Ho'owehiwehi Award - Hana Iki
Halekulani Renewal

As an independent global leader in luxury hospitality, Halekulani has always been committed to ongoing renewal of its brand, property and Waikiki as a premier destination. Halekulani initiated a major property refurbishment commencing with a public area renewal in 2009 and continuing with a total guest room renovation and back of house areas improvements concluding in August 2012.

Halekulani completed upgrades to all guest-rooms and suites, reinvigorating the hotel's accommodations in harmony with its original, unique and compelling design themes, built around its legendary "seven shades of white" and capitalizing on the surrounding environs and natural beauty of Waikiki. The guest-rooms renewal addresses the critical goal of ensuring the best possible guest experience enjoyed from both the rooms themselves and the diverse luxury facilities including its acclaimed restaurants, spa and other recreational amenities while simultaneously increasing Halekulani's competitiveness, and Hawai'i as a luxury destination.

Specifically timed near Lei Day, LED represented and opportunity for Leadership, Exploration and Inspiration from the students' perspective and from the hospitality industr's perspective LEI provides and opportunity to Lead, Expose and Inspire Hawai'i's youth. The day long program began at the Hawai'i Convention Center at 9:30 am; after a morning of leadership, hospitality and cultural training from Mayor Peter Carlisle and other industry leaders, the students separated to visit ten different participating hotels from noon – 3:00 pm; the students returned to the Hawai'i Convention Center from 3:30 -5:00, for a career fair showcasing the many different jobs in the hospitality industry, along with relevant college/university programs. The students were sent off at the end of the day with inspiring words from from Governor Neil Abercrombie.

Over 35 businesses and 60 volunteers participated in the event.

Outrigger Waikiki on the Beach Unveils Improvements, Inside and Out

The oceanfront Hawaii hotel welcomes island traveler to experience its $18-million makeover

Travelers looking for a renewed Hawaii vacation experience can find it at the newly remodeled Outrigger Waikiki on the Beach. With stunning improvements coupled with the well-known island hospitality of Outrigger Hotels and Resorts and the resort's perfect oceanfront location at the center of Waikiki, visitors are sure to find their perfect Hawaii getaway at the Outrigger Waikiki on the Beach.

All guests at this popular Hawaii resort are now enjoying the multitude of upgrades completed over the past eight months, which include a remodeled pool and expanded pool-deck area and upgraded guest rooms and suites -- including new glass railings to all oceanfront rooms and suites.

"We're delighted to show our guests what we've been working on for the past eight months at Outrigger Waikiki on the Beach," said Patsy Narimatsu, director of sales & marketing for Outrigger Waikiki on the Beach. "Our continued hope is to be able to maximize our visitors' experience and provide them with an unforgettable stay on the shores of Waikiki."

The Outrigger Waikiki on the Beach now features 524 newly renovated guest rooms and corner suites with views of Diamond Head, the Pacific Ocean or vibrant city views of Waikiki. The new oceanfront swimming pool is surrounded by a new pool deck tiled in natural stone with a glass surround for unobstructed ocean views. The interior of this iconic beachfront property also has received a facelift with all guest rooms receiving new carpet, furniture, draperies and paint, along with new glass lanai railings in all oceanfront rooms and suites, which help showcase the spectacular view from these rooms.

The hotel has also installed new electronic locks and in-room safes to provide better security for guests, as well as improved sound proofing of walls between rooms for added privacy. Warm earth tones including deep greens and gold were woven into the pineapple carpet patterns, tropical bedding and Waikiki artwork by Glenn Poulain in each guest room, creating a natural ambience of aloha. Additionally, the interior corridors of the hotel have been enhanced with a custom carpet pattern depicting "kalo" or taro leaves as well as corresponding décor and photography of kalo plants by Doreen Decasa.

Located on the shores of famed Waikiki Beach, Outrigger Waikiki on the Beach offers visitors a stunning oceanfront haven of elegance, comfort, gracious hospitality, and an unparalleled commitment to Hawaiian culture. Guests are enveloped in the spirit of ho'okipa (hospitality) from the moment they arrive at the gracious sit-down check-in desk in the lobby. As part of its ongoing commitment to preserving and sharing Hawaii's rich cultural heritage, the Outrigger Waikiki on the Beach continues to proudly offer its guests weekly cultural and educational activities, including a complimentary beachside Hawaiian vow renewal ceremony twice a week, and other special events year-round.

Hawaiian Holdings Inc. Buys Turboprop Aircraft

Hawaiian Holdings, Inc. (NASDAQ: HA) has completed the purchase of its first ATR 42 twin-turboprop aircraft, and has a purchase agreement in place to acquire a second plane to be delivered in November.

The previously owned planes are being acquired from ASL Aviation Group Limited of Dublin, Ireland. Purchase terms are not being disclosed.

The aircraft will be used to inaugurate new passenger service to Moloka'i and Lāna'i in 2013. When configured for neighbor island use, the planes will seat 44 to 50 passengers.

"These are the ideal aircraft for service to the less populated islands in our state," commented Mark Dunkerley, president and CEO of Hawaiian Holdings, parent company of Hawaiian Airlines. "This new service will complement the B717 jet service offered by Hawaiian Airlines as well as provide the additional service that Moloka'i and Lāna'i residents have been requesting."

The new turboprop service will operate separately from Hawaiian Airlines. Hawaiian Holdings is currently developing the name and brand identity of the new entity.

Hawaiian Ranked #1 for On-Time, Fewest Cancellations in August

Hawaiian Airlines was the nation's most reliable carrier at keeping its customers on schedule during the busy travel month of August, ranking first in both on-time performance and fewest flight cancellations, as reported by the U.S. Department of Transportation (DOT).

The DOT's Air Travel Consumer Report showed that Hawaiian's flights arrived on time at a rate of 92.8 percent in August to earn the #1 ranking among the nation's 15 largest airlines. Hawaiian's on-time percentage was 13.7 percentage points better than the industry average.

Hawaiian was also nearly perfect in earning the airline industry's best score for fewest canceled flights in August, recording just two cancellations out of 6,628 total flights.

In the category of fewest consumer complaints, Hawaiian ranked third with a rate of 0.46 complaints for every 100,000 passengers, as the DOT reported only four complaints compared to the more than 877,000 passengers that the airline carried in August.

Hawaiian provides daily nonstop service to Hawai'i from 11 gateway cities in North America – more cities than any other carrier – using Airbus A330-200 and Boeing 767-300 aircraft, making it the only carrier to offer wide-body, twin-aisle aircraft for all transpacific flights.

Hawai'i's largest and longest-serving carrier is also the leading provider of air service between the islands of Hawai'i.

The DOT's Air Travel Consumer Report is available at <http://www.dot.gov/individuals/air-consumer/air-travel-consumer-reports>.

Hawaiian Airlines Reports September Traffic Statistics, Revises Third Quarter Outlook

Hawaiian Airlines, Inc., a subsidiary of Hawaiian Holdings, Inc. (NASDAQ: HA), today announced its systemwide traffic statistics for the month of September, third quarter, and year-to-date and updated its expectations for certain third quarter financial metrics.

Third Quarter 2012 Revised Outlook

Hawaiian has revised its third quarter expectations compared to those provided in its September 4th Investor Update (see table below). The decline in revenue guidance is primarily the result of competitive pricing on a number of specific routes that have seen high rates of industry capacity growth; the improved unit cost guidance is attributable to revenue-driven expense savings, decreased load factors, and lower than expected maintenance expense.

	Third Quarter 2011 Actual	Third Quarter 2012 Estimated Prior Guidance	Third Quarter 2012 Estimated Revised Guidance
Cost Per ASM Excluding Fuel (cents)	8.18	Down 5.0% to down 2.0%	Down 7.3% to down 6.3%
Passenger Revenue Per ASM (cents)	13.05	Down 4.5% to down 1.5%	Down 6.2% to down 5.2%
Operating Revenue per ASM (cents)	14.40	Down 4.5% to down 1.5%	Down 6.3% to down 5.3%
Passenger Revenue Per RPM (cents)	15.32	Down 4.0% to down 1.0%	Down 4.1% to down 3.1%
Load Factor (percentage points)	85.2%	Down 1 pct pt. to up 1 pct pt.	Down 1.9 percentage points
Capacity (ASMs)	3.2 billion	Up 27.5% to up 29.5%	Up 28.0%

Safe Harbor Statement

This investor update contains forward-looking statements that reflect the Company's current views with respect to certain current and future events and financial performance for third quarter 2012 including, but not limited to, statements regarding passenger revenue per available seat mile, operating revenue per available seat mile, passenger revenue per revenue passenger mile and cost per available seat mile excluding fuel. These forward-looking statements are and will be, as the case may be, subject to many risks, uncertainties and factors relating to the Company's operations and business environment which may cause the Company's actual results for the quarter ending September 30, 2012 and the full year ending December 31, 2012 to be materially different from any expected results, expressed or implied, in these forward-looking statements. These risks and uncertainties include, without limitation, economic volatility; the price and availability of aircraft fuel; competition in the North America, Neighbor Island and International markets; reduced demand for transportation in the markets in which the Company operates; the Company's dependence on tourist travel; and the Company's ability to implement its growth strategy and related cost reduction goals.

The Company undertakes no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances that may arise after the date hereof even if experience or future changes make it clear that any projected results expressed or implied herein will not be realized.

Additional information on risk factors that could potentially affect the Company's operations and financial results may be found in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2011, and subsequent filings with the Securities Exchange Commission.

October 21 – Natalie Ai Kamaau

One of Hawaii's best kept secrets, Natalie Ai Kamaau is no stranger to Hawaiian music. Natalie started turning heads when she was just a teenager, singing alongside her father, Howard Ai, for Halau Hula Olana. It wasn't long before Natalie began stealing the show. She garnered the coveted title of Miss Aloha Hula in 1990, but it was her angelic voice that really caught people's attention. In 2006, Kamaau's first solo album "E," captured the Na Hoku Hanohano "Female Vocalist of the Year" award, then again in 2009 for her album "I." Kamaau's voice soars effortlessly through guitar, bass, ukulele, and piano.

November 18 – KAPALA

KAPALA is a unique blend of music and good friends who have come together to make their own imprint on today's music scene. The members of KAPALA have backed up or been a part of Hawaii's finest groups and it is from this experience that KAPALA draw's its inspiration. KAPALA combines traditional and contemporary Hawaiian music with ethnic, jazz, rock, country, urban and soul influences, creating a trailblazing style of music that is uniquely infectious, innovative and at the forefront of today's music scene.

Waikiki Beach Walk® Pumps Up Halloween with Monster Pumpkin Carving Event on Oct. 21

*Outrigger Hotels and Resorts hosts master pumpkin sculptor,
Ed Moody, who will tackle and carve a 1,000 pound pumpkin*

Ed Moody has met his match – and it’s a 1,000 pound pumpkin. On Sunday, October 21, 2012, the master pumpkin sculptor will take on his arch nemesis, a jack-o-giant, for all to see at Waikiki Beach Walk®. This classic man vs. pumpkin battle takes place from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m., at the Waikiki Beach Walk fountain plaza where families and visitors are invited to get into the early spirit of Halloween and enjoy family activities, contests and more.

“This pumpkin-palooza will be a great opportunity for kamaaina and guests to spend the morning in Waikiki, getting an early start celebrating Halloween with costumes, carving and contests,” said Conchita Malaqui, general manager of Waikiki Beach Walk. “We’re excited to be the first stop for master pumpkin sculptor Ed Moody, as he tackles other gargantuan gourds later in the week as part of the third annual Pumpkin Carving Festival.”

Michigan-resident Ed Moody brings more than 25 years of pumpkin carving experience with him for this year’s pumpkin production. Pumpkin carving initially began as a fun Halloween activity for Moody and his sons that evolved into a passion for sculpting life-sized pumpkins weighing in at more than 1,000 pounds and attracting tens of thousands of viewers each year.

Waikiki Beach Walk is also hosting local artist Wayne Takazono, who will etch the faces of company founders Roy and Estelle Kelley into a pumpkin in honor of this year’s 65th anniversary of Outrigger Hotels and Resorts. Takazono is an Oahu native with an impressive skill-set, working in a variety of art mediums including charcoals, pastels, watercolors, acrylics, oils as well as extensive experience with wax jewelry-making and sculpting.

The Waikiki Beach Walk pumpkin extravaganza will also feature fun and festive activities for keiki and the whole ohana to enjoy, including a keiki Halloween costume contest, coloring contest, temporary tattoos, prize wheel and giveaways. Lil’ ghouls and goblins are invited to dress up in their favorite Halloween costume for a chance to win prizes from Waikiki Beach Walk merchants and Outrigger Hotels and Resorts. Costumes will be judged at 12 noon on the categories of most creative, cutest, scariest and best overall.

Families can park with ease that day with $6.00 valet parking (up to four hours) at the Embassy Suites- Waikiki Beach Walk (201 Beachwalk) or the Wyndham Vacation Ownership-Waikiki Beach Walk (227 Lewers Street), with any same-day purchase from any Waikiki Beach Walk merchant.

Outrigger Hotels and Resorts is a sponsor of this year’s Pumpkin Carving Festival benefiting two local charities, Keiki o Ka Aina Family Learning Centers and USO Hawaii. The Waikiki Beach Walk event is a prelude to activities taking place later in the week, including an Executive Pumpkin Carve down and Corporate Team Competition in downtown Honolulu on October 24 and Family Day at Windward Mall on October 27. For more information on the Pumpkin Carving Festival, log on to www.pumpkin carving festival.org.
