Duke's OceanFest Celebrates Surfing Legend's Legacy in Waikiki, August 19-27

Duke's OceanFest, Waikīkī's premier ocean sports festival, returns to honor the enduring legacy of the legendary Duke Paoa Kahanamoku, August 19-27. An Olympic champion, surfing pioneer and expert paddler, Duke Kahanamoku is fondly remembered as an accomplished waterman and ambassador of Hawai'i's Aloha Spirit.

The 2017 Duke's OceanFest will feature 30 exciting athletic ocean and beach competitions and special events during its nine-day schedule, with most taking place at Queen's Surf on Waikīkī Beach, a favorite place of Duke Kahanamoku, and home to the magnificent statue honoring his contributions to the world of watersports.

The public is invited to join in on the competitions and community events such as the screening of Duke Kahanamoku: Hawai'i's Soul documentary on August 24 at the International Market Place where nightclub Duke's was previously located. Visit www.dukesoceanfest.com for more information, entry forms, special offers from travel partners, and event updates.

"Duke's OceanFest is nine days of fun, family-friendly ocean events that owes its success to the strength and involvement of the community in perpetuating the waterman legacy," said Chris Colgate, co-chair of Duke's OceanFest. "Every year, residents, visitors, competitors and spectators come together from around the world to enjoy Waikīkī Beach at its best, just as Duke Kahanamoku did for decades."

“Through this annual event, we are paying tribute to one of the world’s most renowned watermen, Duke Kahanamoku, and how he continues to inspire watermen and waterwomen around the world. Duke’s OceanFest is committed to passing on Duke’s love for the ocean and the aloha he shared with all people who came to Hawai‘i.”

Coinciding with Duke Kahanamoku’s birthday (Aug. 24, 1890), Duke’s OceanFest began as a one-day celebration on Aug. 24, 2002, to welcome the issuance of a commemorative stamp of Duke Kahanamoku by the U.S. Postal Service. Since then, the annual festival has grown tremendously in support from volunteers, generous sponsors, and supportive government agencies, which make the nine-day festival possible.

Duke’s OceanFest supports the Outrigger Duke Kahanamoku Foundation (ODKF). Net proceeds from Duke’s OceanFest help fund ODKF’s awarding of scholarships and grants to Hawai‘i residents and non-profit groups competing in water sports and volleyball.

Renowned as Hawai‘i’s greatest athlete, Duke Kahanamoku won six Olympic medals, including three gold medals in swimming, and is recognized as the “Father of International Surfing.” In his prime, Kahanamoku was the world’s fastest swimmer, the single-most influential person in promoting surfing worldwide, and a champion paddler and steersman.

International Market Place Celebrates One-Year Anniversary with Month-long Slate of Festivities, including Special Events, Promotions and Community Giving

In 1957, a legendary gathering place unlike any other in Hawai'i was established in the heart of Waikiki – International Market Place. The iconic destination attracted visitors from all over the world who shopped, dined and experienced memorable performances by legendary entertainers like Don Ho before closing in 2014. Today, the story continues, as the fully reimagined shopping, dining and entertainment destination revealed by Taubman and CoastWood Capital Group marks its one-year anniversary on August 25, 2017.

“It has been an incredible year for International Market Place as kama‘āina and the local business community have truly welcomed and embraced us,” said General Manager Michael Fenley. “We are committed to this community and look forward to offering unparalleled shopping, dining and entertainment experiences while at the same time celebrating the rich history of this land and its people.”

The shopping center will celebrate its anniversary with a month-long lineup of events, including free lei-making classes, concerts, outdoor movies, hula performances, charitable donations to local non-profits, along with discounts and giveaways. A special part of the events, a one-of-a-kind bronze statue of legendary Hawaiian musician and entertainer Don Ho will be unveiled to the public on Sunday, Aug. 13 at 1:30 p.m.

“Throughout the course of reimagining International Market Place, honoring the land’s rich history and musical heritage was the cornerstone of the project. This statue is a gift to the people of Hawai'i and our visitors to commemorate Don Ho’s musical contributions and legacy for future generations to enjoy,” said Fenley.

Anchored by Hawai'i’s only full-line Saks Fifth Avenue, International Market Place continues to enhance its compelling retail and restaurant mix. The center now has nearly 80 stores and restaurants, with approximately 50 percent being new to the market. Recent tenant openings include Tesla, Brunello Cucinelli, Pacific Harley Davidson, Vince, Billabong, 3.1 Phillip Lim, Philip Rickard, House of Samsonite, Martin & MacArthur, as well Mitsuwa Marketplace and Michael Mina’s new food hall concept, THE STREET, the first in the nation.

“It’s an honor to be part of this incredible project and to see International Market Place thriving,” said Chef Mina. “We love being a place for locals and visitors to enjoy and look forward to many more years of being a part of the Waikiki community.”

Please see attachment for list of International Market Place experiences and tenants.

Aqua-Aston Hospitality Names Senior VP, Sales, Marketing, and Revenue

Ed Skapinok has been named senior vice president of sales, marketing, and revenue for Aqua-Aston Hospitality. Based in Honolulu, Hawaii, Aqua-Aston is a leading hotel and resort management and marketing group, with a portfolio of nearly 50 properties in Hawaii and the continental United States.

As senior vice president, Skapinok will lead the marketing, sales, revenue management, and reservations initiatives for the company. In this role, he is also responsible for negotiating key contracts, customer acquisition and retention, and driving revenue for the company.

“Ed has been widely recognized for his accomplishments as a sales and marketing leader with both global hotel operators and independent properties,” said Kelvin Bloom, president of Aqua-Aston Holdings. “We are thrilled to welcome him to our team and look forward to seeing our business grow under his leadership.”

Prior to joining the company, Skapinok spent six years as vice president of sales and marketing at Hostmark Hospitality Group in Schaumburg, Illinois, where he oversaw a portfolio of 50 full- and select-service hotels, resorts, restaurants, and spas. While there, he led efforts to recruit and develop top talent for the company’s diverse multi-brand portfolio, established new standards for pricing, and worked to continually improve the effectiveness of all promotional efforts.

Previously, Skapinok worked as vice president of national sales for boutique hotel operator Larkspur Hotels & Restaurants, where he directed sales for a portfolio of 23 lifestyle boutique and upscale extended stay hotels in top markets, including San Francisco, Manhattan Beach, Seattle, Portland, and Silicon Valley. In addition, he has held senior positions overseeing sales and marketing for Sheraton Hotels and InterContinental Hotels Group in his home state of California, where he earned his M.B.A. in business strategy and management at the University of California, Davis. Skapinok currently serves as chairman of the sales advisory board for Hospitality Sales & Marketing Association International (HSMIAI).

From full-service resorts and stylish hotels to condominium resorts and comfortable budget properties in Hawaii and the continental United States, Aqua-Aston Hospitality manages properties designed to suit any lifestyle, taste or budget. ## The Royal Hawaiian, A Luxury Collection Resort teams up with award-winning singer/songwriter for Children’s Miracle Network Fundraiser

Emmy Award-winning singer/songwriter Patrick Sieben, one of Las Vegas’ top performers comes to the Mai Tai Bar at The Royal Hawaiian, a Luxury Collection for one night only, on Saturday, July 22 and 6:30 p.m. Sieben currently performs four nights a week at the Aria Resort and Casino, mixing modern pop tunes, classic hits and originals. Sieben has opened for acts such as Toto and Yes, as well as performed multiple times for members of the United States Armed Forces in locales such as Kuwait and Norway. The concert is the second in the series of events at the resort known as Only at the Royal Events, which celebrates the Pink Palace of the Pacific’s 90th anniversary in 2017.

During Sieben’s concert, the Mai Tai Bar will be featuring a variety of specials, including the Miracle Mai Tai using Old Lahaina Rum, which is one of the night’s sponsors along with Kona Brewing Company. Proceeds from the drink specials that evening will go to the Children’s Miracle Network in Hawaii. Those who cannot make it to the Mai Tai Bar that evening are encouraged to make an online donation to the Children’s Miracle Network. In Hawaii, the Kapi’olani Medical Center for Women & Children is the only Children’s Miracle Network Hospital, treating thousands of keiki each year in making miracles happen every day.

Guests are invited to book a special rate at The Royal Hawaiian over the weekend so that they just need to “take the elevator home” following Sieben’s concert. Room rates for July 21 and 22 begin at $265 per night. To book, call Reservations at (888) 627-8108 and ask for rate code “RH Events 2.”

“Patrick’s tremendous stage presence combined with the Mai Tai Bar’s extraordinary beachfront location will make for an enchanting, memorable evening Only at The Royal,” says Cheryl Williams, general manager, The Royal Hawaiian, a Luxury Collection Resort.

For more information about the event, see The Royal Hawaiian’s Events Page.

Hawaiian Diacritical Marks

Waikīkī Improvement Association recognizes the use of diacritical marks (i.e., glottal stop (ʻ), macron (ā) in place names of Hawai‘i, such as Waikīkī and Kalākāua Avenue and will include them whenever possible. We also respect the individual use (or not) of these markings for names of organizations and businesses.

There will also be times when we may not have a chance to add or change the markings in all of the articles submitted and when that happens, e kala mai.

WHAT'S NEW ON OAHU?

Dive into Summer with the Surfjack's Summer Pool Party Series

The Surfjack Hotel & Swim Club, Waikiki's first 1960s throwback hotel, has curated a line-up of poolside events, including a mid-century pop-up shop, a "Talk Story" with surf filmmaker Taylor Steele, a puppy adoption day, and a trio of pool parties featuring beach wear launches, poolside massages, polaroid booths, celebrity guests, and an exclusive beach cruiser unveil, in addition to renowned DJs, mix-and-match juice cocktails, and light bites by Mahina & Sun's. With a summer lineup unlike any other hotel and pool parties in its iconic "Wish You Were Here" pool, guests can cannonball into summer with the latest adventurers, culturists, and epicureans. For more information, visit surfjack.com/experiences

Locals Know This Waikiki Hotel Has the Best Firework Views on the Fourth of July

Every year, 40,000+ visitors flood Ala Moana Beach Park ready to day camp, grill, and watch the evening's Fourth of July fireworks display – the island's largest. But if crowds aren't on your agenda, Ilikai Hotel & Luxury Suites, located at the gateway to Waikiki, offers guests some of the island's best vantage points. Book a room, skip the crowds, and enjoy a spectacular show. Here's an insider tip: Book a Luxury Jr. Suite Sunset Ocean View room for the best fourth of July views. Or ask for Room 4137 or 4139.

Refreshing Sips at Refreshing Prices ... in Waikiki!

Inside a boutique hotel off-the-beaten path in Waikiki is one of the neighborhood's best kept secrets: Lounge Renew, a contemporary bar and hangout for cocktails and good conversation. The best part? Cocktails are handcrafted at prices that don't hurt the wallet, such as Lounge Renew's Guava Mojito ($6), a tropical take on a time-honored cocktail. Happy hour cocktails are served daily starting at 5:30 p.m. for guests of Hotel Renew and the public.

Hotel Penthouse Gets in Bed with AirBnB

Boutique hotels like Aqua Ohia Waikiki are taking advantage of this new distribution channel. Leveraging AirBnB to sell a unique product like Aqua Ohia Waikiki's ocean view 2-bed, 2-bath penthouse and private lanai, the hotel now has access to a new segment of consumers seeking one-of-a-kind lodging options. Toss in additional benefits like free parking (a rarity in Waikiki) and waived hotel amenity fees, this penthouse is the perfect getaway for family travelers or a girlfriend trip to the island of sun, surf and sand.

Pho Meets Shave Ice at Aqua Oasis Hotel

Agalico Waikiki is the newest restaurant to open inside Aqua Oasis Hotel, a small boutique hotel and oasis located amidst the hustle and bustle of Waikiki. Agalico Waikiki's Asian fusion style concept blends Thai, Vietnamese, and Indonesian cuisine and tops it with a unique Hawaii twist. For example, you'll find unique dishes like Shrimp Toast and Pho Shaved Ice, a pho dish with a frozen savory broth and rainbow food coloring so that it appears like shaved ice. Hotel guests at Aqua Oasis can enjoy an exclusive 10% discount on these popular dishes as well as all other menu items.

International Market Place to Honor Legendary Hawaiian Musician and Entertainer Don Ho

Don Ho statue unveiling, dedication ceremony and tribute performances

WHAT: In celebration of the first anniversary of International Market Place, the center will host a special dedication ceremony and the unveiling of a one-of-a-kind Don Ho statue on his date of birth, Sunday, Aug. 13. The bronze sculpture, created by Honolulu artist Kim Duffett, commemorates Ho's tremendous contributions to Hawaiian music and history.

Ho launched his career when he was invited to perform at Duke Kahanamoku's, a popular nightclub at International Market Place in the 1960's. Ho became one of Waikīkī's most recognizable icons with globally recognized songs, "Tiny Bubbles" and "I'll Remember You."

Open to the public, the statue unveiling and dedication ceremony will be held in the Banyan Court on Level 1 beginning at 1:30 p.m. The Ho family, Duffett and members of Hawai'i's music industry will be in attendance. Following the statue unveiling, special performances by Don Ho's family members and friends will take place in Queen's Court beginning at 4 p.m. This event will join month long festivities celebrating International Market Place's one year anniversary.

ROYAL HAWAIIAN CELEBRATES LOCAL ARTIST SARAH CAUDLE WITH POP-UP GALLERY

Royal Hawaiian Center will feature selected works by Sarah Caudle, a local resin painter, as part of its continuing efforts to support local artists, craftsmen and designers. The pop-up gallery, which consists of a window display in a high traffic area of the B-Building on Level 3 next to H. I. S. Travel, will profile the artist from August 3rd through September 30th. All paintings will be available for purchase.

“Royal Hawaiian Center is a strong supporter of the arts,” says Monte McComber, Cultural Director for Royal Hawaiian Center. “We embrace any opportunity where we can highlight local talent and expose them to the visitor market.”

Sarah Caudle is a Hawai‘i-based abstract and seascape artist who creates a visual escape to paradise for others to find a sense of peace, happiness and aloha. Her paintings, inspired by nature and the sea, depict the beauty of Hawai‘i through dynamic colors, fluid movements and organic compositions.

“I hope to inspire others to live in the present and enjoy the beauty of everyday life,” says Sarah Caudle. Caudle uses acrylics and resin on wood panels to create her original art. Each piece of artwork is made in Hawai‘i, including the wood panel art surfaces, artwork and prints.

Thursdays Waipuna

Waipuna's eclectic musical backgrounds and similar musical taste has led to the development of a unique sound. After the release of their critically-acclaimed first album, Mana'o Pili, the duo, now trio, has been blessed with the opportunity to share their music with Hawai'i and beyond.

Tuesdays Lehua Kalima & Shawn Pimental

Lehua is a member of the award-winning group, Nā Leo Pilimehana. After 19 albums and 20 Na Hoku Hanohano awards, they continue to record and perform throughout the world. Shawn Pimental is a Hōkū award-winning producer who has worked with many familiar names in the studio as a musical director, including Nā Palapalai, Keali'i Reichel, and more.

Fridays Kūpaoa

The combined talents of Kellen Paik and Lihau Hannahs Paik embody the name they've chosen for their musical presence—Kūpaoa—suffused with fragrance, or heady with scent. Their talents are many, for they infuse musical ability and charm into two sweet, rich voices to offer up an inviteing blend, like a perfume that can be spicy, soothing, and alluring all at once.

Saturdays Hula Kahiko

A performance of ancient Hawaiian dance by a local hālau hula (school of Hawaiian dance). This month we feature Hālau 'Ōlapakūikala'i 'O Hōkūalani, Kumu Hula, Hōkū Nihipali.

Wednesdays Malu Productions

Malu Productions is an award-winning company that specializes in custom show presentations and services. Shows are fast paced, interactive, and sure to entertain audiences of all ages and cultural backgrounds.
