ALOHA FESTIVALS 2017 THEME: "He lei aloha KE keiki - children are our garland of love"

The 2017 Aloha Festivals celebrates the love for Hawai'i's children and future with "He Lei Aloha Ke Keiki – Children Are Our Garland of Love."

Throughout 'ōlelo no'eau (Hawaiian proverbs) there are poetic references to children as flower (pua) and garland (lei) for their promise and need for nurturing in order for them to thrive.

The entire 'ohana (family) from grandparents to keiki (children) are invited to create enduring memories and experiences of Hawai'i's rich cultural history and traditions during the 2017 Aloha Festivals in September.

International Market Place unveils statue honoring legendary Hawaiian musician and entertainer Don Ho

Lifelike sculpture of beloved Waikiki entertainer recognizes his longtime residency at the iconic island destination

During his prolific career in the 1960s, Don Ho was the must-see musician in Waikiki, drawing record-number audiences of both Hawai'i residents and international visitors. To commemorate Ho's tremendous contributions to Hawaiian music and history, International Market Place unveiled a one-of-a-kind bronze statue of the performer's likeness on Sunday, Aug. 13, during a public ceremony.

"We are incredibly grateful to all who were involved in the creation of a timeless piece that honors Don's legacy at International Market Place," said Ron Loch, vice president of planning and design for Taubman. "Careful consideration went into where the statue would be displayed, so we positioned it to welcome guests with warmest aloha as they enter the center from Kalakaua Avenue."

As part of the shopping center's one-year anniversary celebration, the statue debuted on what would have marked the entertainer's 87th birthday. Together with members of the Ho family, hundreds of admirers gathered beneath the 160-year-old banyan tree at International Market Place. Longtime friends and fellow musicians including Henry Kapono, Melveen Leed, Marlene Sai, Nina Keali'iwahamana, Kimo Kahoano, Nathan Aweau, Joe Mundo, Angel Pablo, and James Dela Cruz performed in a kanikapila jam session and musical tributes to Ho. Ho's family members also joined the festivities, which were attended by his children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Governor David Y. Ige and First Lady Dawn Amano-Ige were also in attendance.

"Don was the essence of Hawai'i, the embodiment of aloha. He won the world over with his passion for community, his fellow servicemen and of course his love for music and his charming charisma. We are incredibly proud of his legacy," said his wife Haumea Ho. "This is Don's homecoming, to a place he loved dearly, and we are honored that through this memorial he will continue to share his aloha for decades to come."

Designed by O'ahu-based artist Kim Duffett, the 6-foot-4-inch, 300-pound bronze sculpture depicts Ho in the 1970s, and was created to convey his warmth, charisma and carefree aloha that charmed audiences. Duffett conducted substantial research on Ho's life, gathered historic photos and talked story with the singer's family members and countless friends to gain inspiration. "I wanted to create a signature performance pose as if Don was beckoning someone in the audience to join him on stage, as he often did," said Duffett, who also is a musician and participated in the kanikapila.

During his International Market Place residency at Duke Kahanamoku's lounge, Ho revolutionized the Waikiki showroom scene with a simple, good-time lounge show that spotlighted his laid-back and affable personality. He scored a worldwide hit with "Tiny Bubbles," earning him a national recording contract and an assemblage of best-selling albums, television appearances and his own namesake network variety series.

Don Ho's statue dedication is part of the month-long celebration of International Market Place's one-year anniversary (August 25). Other events and promotions include the Island Vibes Summer Concert Series, Waikiki Nights: Duke Kahanamoku Movie Night in partnership with the Outrigger Duke Kahanamoku and Duke's OceanFest, a chance to earn HawaiianMiles and a special performance by the Royal Hawaiian Band.

Beachhouse at the Moana partners with world-renowned Pahlmeyer Winery

The iconic wines of Pahlmeyer Winery are the latest to be paired with the exceptional cuisine of Chef David Lukela at the Beachhouse at the Moana, located at the Moana Surfrider, A Westin Resort & Spa. The Beachhouse's signature "Pairings" Wine Dinner takes place on Thursday, September 21 at 6:30 p.m., featuring Pahlmeyer's classically balanced and powerful wines, along with several from its sister vineyard, Wayfarer. Chef Lukela has prepared a four-course showstopper menu featuring fresh, locally-sourced ingredients, complemented by the wines.

The menu for the September 21 "Pairings" dinner is as follows:

First

Cold smoked Kampachi, caviar, yuzu, beet cracker
2014 Pahlmeyer Chardonnay, Napa Valley

Second

Duck prosciutto, frisée, pistachios, foie balsamic dressing
2014 Wayfarer Pinot Noir, Sonoma Coast

Third

Buffalo wellington with truffle pomme puree, farmer's market vegetables, bordelaise
2014 Jayson Cabernet Sauvignon, Napa Valley

Dessert

Chocolate and berries by Executive Pastry Chef Nanako Perez-Nava
Milk and dark chocolate cream, mixed berry compote, pistachio biscuit, white chocolate powder
2014 Pahlmeyer Merlot, Napa Valley

Cheese

Brie brulee with marcona almond, crostini
2013 Pahlmeyer Proprietary Red, Napa Valley

Located in the eastern hills of Napa Valley, Pahlmeyer has continued to excel and produce some of the finest wines in the world. On Wine Spectator's 100-point scale, all Pahlmeyer wines rank within the 94-to-100-point range, a feat that is difficult, and rarely achieved. Since 1986, Pahlmeyer has continued to revolutionize the wine world. Launched in 2015, "Pairings" at the Beachhouse at the Moana continues to be one of the most popular wine dinners in Waikiki. Chef Lukela's mastery of flavor combinations has helped this dinner series reach unprecedented demand. Earlier this year, the Beachhouse paired with Cakebread Cellars and Grgich Hills Winery.

The cost of the "Pairings" dinner featuring Pahlmeyer wine is $150.52 per person (price includes tax, gratuity, and validated valet parking). Tickets can be purchased at Honolulu Box Office.

Epicurean Journey continues

The Royal Hawaiian, a Luxury Collection Resort's third installment of its popular Epicurean Journeys dining series will focus on the Hawaiian archipelago and products from each island chain. The first evening of "Archipelagos" (Sept. 29) will feature a sunset cocktail reception and dinner crafted by the Royal Chefs, followed the next day (Sept. 30) with an engaging hands-on cooking class and luncheon with the Royal's culinary team. The final Epicurean Journey of the year will be "The Royal Feast" (Dec. 15-16), a meal fit for royalty set in The Royal's Kamehameha Suite, overlooking Waikiki Beach.

For reservations, call (808) 921-4600.

Hilton vacation package benefits Shriners Hospitals for Children

Guests can Donate When They Book the "Love to the Rescue" Package

Through a partnership with Shriners Hospitals for Children® Honolulu, guests can vacation and give back at the same time with Hilton Hawaiian Village and (Hilton Waikoloa Village) "Love to the Rescue" package, available now through June 1, 2018.

When booking Love to the Rescue, a $15 per night charge is applied to the room stay which directly benefits the hospital's research and specialized care to children in Hawaii. Shriners' mission is to provide the highest quality care to children with bone, joint and muscle conditions, and other special health care needs within a compassionate, family-centered and collaborative care environment. The institution also provides for the education of health care professionals, and is on the leading edge of research to improve the quality of care provided to children.

"One of Shriners' distinguishing commitments is that we never turn away a child in need of care – regardless of whether they have health insurance and regardless of a family's ability to pay," said Honolulu Shriners Hospital administrator John White. "We are thankful that Hilton is providing an avenue for visitors to partner with us in continuing this mission."

"Throughout our history, we've always sought new ways to engage the visitor industry for the common good," said Jerry Gibson, area vice president of Hilton Hawaii. "Major retail outlets and grocery stores have built in ways to donate to a charity directly from their checkout systems. We thought why couldn't we bring that principle to our hotel? We're just opening the door for our guests to add some positive impact to their vacation."

For more information or to book Love to the Rescue, call toll-free +1 800 HILTONS (+1 800 445 8667) and ask for rate plan "NS" or visit www.hiltonhawaiianvillage.com/shriners

Hawaiian Diacritical Marks

Waikīkī Improvement Association recognizes the use of diacritical marks (i.e., glottal stop (ʻ), macron (ā) in place names of Hawaiʻi, such as Waikīkī and Kalākāua Avenue and will include them whenever possible. We also respect the individual use (or not) of these markings for names of organizations and businesses.

There will also be times when we may not have a chance to add or change the markings in all of the articles submitted and when that happens, e kala mai.

Hilton Hawaii Announces Area Director of Sales and Marketing

John Hawley has been promoted to area director of sales and marketing for both Hilton Hawaiian Village and Hilton Waikoloa Village. Hawley served as director of sales and marketing at Hilton Hawaiian Village for the past two and a half years, originally coming from the Hilton Baltimore where he held a similar role.

Hawley will now oversee sales operations at both Hilton Hawaiian Village and Hilton Waikoloa Village as well as manage the newly formed Hilton Hawaii sales complex organization. The organization includes a combination of remote and Hawaii-based large group sales staff originally from the Waikiki and Waikoloa properties who now sell both resorts.

“John has done a phenomenal job at Hilton Hawaiian Village,” said Duke Ah Moo, vice president and commercial director with Hilton Hawaii. “We are confident that our other signature resort, Hilton Waikoloa Village, will greatly benefit from his leadership.”

Hilton Hawaiian Village Announces Director of Revenue Management-Transient Markets

Hilton Hawaiian Village Waikiki Beach Resort welcomes Susana Ribeiro-Marczak as its new director of revenue management - transient markets.

Ribeiro-Marczak brings with her more than 21 years of hotel management experience, with 17 of those years specializing in revenue management. She most recently served as the associate director, revenue management - franchise North America, for Starwood Hotels & Resorts, overseeing 40 full service and luxury hotels in New York City, New Jersey and the Mid-Atlantic region. Ribeiro-Marczak was also previously the senior account manager - hotels for Booking.com where she led a team of acquisition and revenue managers for the New York City office, overseeing hotels in the New Jersey, Ohio, Pennsylvania and Mid-Atlantic markets. She has also served as the regional director of revenue management for TPG Hospitality, and managed 24 full service hotels on the East Coast under brand names such as Starwood, Hilton, Marriott, IHG, Radisson and Choice.

Ribeiro-Marczak received a Bachelor of Science degree in management science from Kean University and a Bachelor of Arts degree in political science from Rutgers University. She is also fluent in Portuguese, French, Italian and Spanish.

“We are grateful to have such a seasoned leader on our team,” said Debi Bishop, managing director of Hilton Hawaiian Village Waikiki Beach Resort. “We are excited to see her continue an already stellar career and look forward to the insight she will bring to the revenue management team.”

ALA MOANA CENTER ANNOUNCES 10 NEW EATERIES TO BE FEATURED AT THE LANAI @ ALA MOANA

-The new dining concept will open on October 27-

Ala Moana Center's newest dining concept, The Lanai @ Ala Moana will officially open its doors on Oct. 27, 2017. Located in the former Shirokiya space on Mall Level 2 in the Diamond Head Wing, The Lanai @ Ala Moana will offer breakfast, lunch, dinner and grab-and-go options, and feature seating for up to 450 customers with the option to dine al fresco beneath elegant festival lighting or inside a chic dining hall.

The 10 new concepts to be featured at the contemporary food hall will include Agave & Vine, Ahi & Vegetable, BRUG, Da Spot, HiTEA Café, Ike's Place, Mahalo Burger, Sobaya, Teppanyaki Farmer and Uncle Clay's House of Pure Aloha.

"As food halls continue to increase in popularity across the U.S., we look forward to unveiling O'ahu's newest communal dining concept in the Center's Diamond Head Wing," said Francis Cofran, senior general manager of Ala Moana Center. "The Lanai @ Ala Moana will have an artisanal and unique vibe where locals and visitors will be able to relax and explore an eclectic array of options, including popular local foodie favorites served alongside eateries new to Hawai'i and one of O'ahu's first agave bars."

Coming Soon

Agave & Vine

A cool, relaxing spot to wind down, Agave & Vine customers will enjoy an impressive selection of excellent tequilas, wines and craft beers. Featuring hand crafted cocktails and local favorites, shoppers are invited to sit back and enjoy a game on one of Agave & Vine's flat screen HD TVs or just unwind after a fun day of shopping.

Ahi & Vegetable

High-quality tuna chosen daily from Honolulu's fish auction, Ahi & Vegetable's seafood selection is as fresh as it gets. As their third venue on O'ahu, Ahi & Vegetable's Ala Moana Center location will continue to offer the most fresh and healthy seafood options in an assortment of sushi, sashimi, rolls, poke and bentos with a side of salad or rice. In addition to raw food specialties, Ahi & Vegetable will also serve cooked foods, including teriyaki chicken and beef, grilled fish (ahi and salmon), and more. Ahi & Vegetable has two other locations on Oahu, on Fort Street Mall and in the Kapalama Shopping Center.

BRUG

BRUG is a popular Japanese-style bakery and cafe from Hokkaido, featuring delicious, artisan baked goods made fresh daily right in the store and sold with aloha. BRUG also serves soups, sandwiches, cold-brewed coffee, jelly drinks and other beverages. BRUG will be open for breakfast, lunch and dinner.

Da Spot

Da Spot has been providing sustainable local healthy meal options for the masses since 2004. With a wide assortment of exotic foods from around the world, Da Spot is the passport to a memorable, affordable and tasty experience. Beyond the unique dishes, Da Spot also serves up a savory selection of 35 different smoothies, with an option to create your own. Da Spot's motto is to "feed the masses not the classes" with healthy options that "broke da mouth not the wallet" for a memorable, positively happy, tasty, experience. Da Spot also has a location on S. King Street in Honolulu.

HiTEA Cafe

HiTEA Cafe was established in 2015 and currently has two locations on Maui. Primary offerings will include freshly prepared stir-fry dishes with a mix of shrimp, various meats and fresh vegetable items. HiTEA Cafe will also serve fresh fruit juices, fresh fruit BOBA smoothies and various BOBA teas.

Ike's Place

New to Hawai'i, Ike's Place first began selling their famous sandwiches in San Francisco in 2007. Ike's made-to-order sandwich options range from the standard turkey to creative fillings such as mozzarella sticks or jalapeño poppers topped with the brand's famous "dirty sauce."

Mahaloha Burger

Mahaloha Burger's locally-inspired menu features 100 percent free-range beef from the Big Island of Hawai'i that is fresh and never frozen, with no fillers, no antibiotics or growth hormones. Each burger features an island flare such as the Loco Moco Burger with homemade gravy, egg and crispy fried onions or the ever popular Avocado or Banzai BBQ Burger. Mahaloha Burger also features a variety of sides including sweet potato, onion rings, french fries, tater tots and a variety of shakes. Mahaloha has two additional locations on Oahu, in the Royal Hawaiian Shopping Center and in Kailua.

Sobaya

Sobaya is an authentic Japanese noodle house specializing in soba (buckwheat), udon and ramen noodles in soup. Served hot or cold, Sobaya's refreshing noodle dishes come with a variety of toppings, including popular tempura options.

Teppanyaki Farmer

Featuring an open kitchen concept where customers can watch as their meal is prepared, Teppanyaki Farmer will use locally available farm fresh products and feature its signature dish, Da Original Steakroll.

Uncle Clay's House of Pure Aloha

From a half-century old childhood dream to opening the first House of Pure Aloha in Aina Haina in 2011, Uncle Clay's vision will expand to exciting new heights at Ala Moana Center. Whether a kama'aina or guest to the islands, guests are invited to come and celebrate the true spirit of Hawai'i as one 'ohana (family) at the House. Take part in the experience and savor Uncle Clay's all-natural Hawaiian shave ice, locally made ice cream, plus a new island staple bringing two local favorites "two"gether at last — every dessert handcrafted from the heart and shared with Pure Aloha.

These operators will each provide unique food options, using earth-friendly and biodegradable service products. At approximately 18,000 square feet of interior space, The Lanai @ Ala Moana will join Ala Moana Center's wide variety of dining options, including the Makai Market Food Court and Ho'okipa Terrace.

Schedule of Aloha Festivals events:

All events are free and open to the public. They are supported by the sale of Aloha Festivals ribbons and merchandise from participating retailers. Aloha Festivals merchandise will be sold at all events.

Saturday, Sept. 9

Aloha Festivals Royal Court Investiture and Opening Ceremony

Investiture – The Royal Hawaiian Hotel, Coconut Grove, 4 p.m.

Opening Ceremony – Royal Hawaiian Center, Royal Grove, 5 p.m.

The Ali'i – king, queen, prince and princess – take their places in the 2017 Aloha Festivals Royal Court. Court members receive the royal cloak, helmet, head feather lei and other symbols of their reign. Traditional chant and hula kahiko (ancient hula) highlight the event.

Saturday, Sept. 16

Keiki Ho'olaule'a, 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Pearlridge Center Uptown

Pearlridge Center will celebrate Aloha Festivals with a variety of activities, demonstrations and continuous stage performances by participating keiki (children's) musical groups and hula hālau (schools). New this year is Pū Ha'aheo – Keiki Conch Shell Blowing Contest. The 2017 Aloha Festivals Royal Court will make a special appearance. For more information, visit www.pearlridgeonline.com.

Saturday, Sept. 23

Waikīkī Ho'olaule'a, 7 p.m. to 10 p.m.

Kalākaua Avenue

The annual Waikīkī Ho'olaule'a is Hawai'i's largest, most festive block party. Thousands of people will take to the streets for food, fun and entertainment. Top Island entertainers will perform along with hula hālau while Hawaiian crafts and floral lei will be on display and available for purchase.

Saturday, Sept. 30

71st Annual Aloha Festivals Floral Parade, 9 a.m. to noon

Kalākaua Avenue from Ala Moana Park to Kapi'olani Park

A colorful equestrian procession of pā'ū (long-skirted) riders, exquisite floats with cascades of Hawaiian flowers, hula hālau, marching bands and dignitaries will enliven Kalākaua Avenue.

Aloha Festivals would like to acknowledge the following sponsors – Hawai'i Tourism Authority, City and County of Honolulu, Royal Hawaiian Center, Hawaiian Airlines, KFVE, Hawaiian 105 KINE, Christ Embassy Hawaii, Kyo-ya Hotels & Resorts and Outrigger Enterprises.

About Aloha Festivals

Aloha Festivals was first held in 1946 as Aloha Week, and over the past seven decades has become a celebration of Hawaiian culture, integrating the traditions and cultures of the Islands through music, dance, cuisine and art. All festivities are coordinated by a volunteer board of directors. Aloha Festivals is funded by the Hawai'i Tourism Authority, corporate and private sponsorships, and sales of Aloha Festivals ribbons and merchandise.

More information about Aloha Festivals and its events can be found at www.alohafestivals.com, Facebook (facebook.com/AlohaFestivals), Twitter (@AlohaFstvlS) Instagram (@alohafestivals) or by calling (808) 923-2030.

ROYAL HAWAIIAN CELEBRATES ALOHA FESTIVALS AND HAWAI'I'S CHILDREN WITH LĀ KEIKI (KID'S DAY)

Royal Hawaiian Center is pleased to host the 71st Annual Aloha Festivals Opening Ceremony on Saturday, September 9 from 5–6pm in The Royal Grove.

Following their investiture, the Aloha Festivals Royal Court in full, traditional regalia will be in attendance during a special performance by Holunape, the 2006 Na Hōkū Hanohano award winners for Group of the Year, Hawaiian Language Performance of the Year, and Traditional Hawaiian Album of the Year. Hālau O Kaululaua'e under the direction of Kumu Hula Mikiala Lidstone from Kapolei will also perform. The event is open to the public and heralds a month of special events throughout O'ahu sharing the history and the traditions of Hawai'i.

"This year, Aloha Festivals celebrates children with its theme, He Lei Aloha Ke Keiki, Children are Our Garland of Love," says Monte McComber, Cultural Director of Royal Hawaiian Center. "We are happy to be a longtime sponsor of the festivals and join in on the theme by hosting an event just for kids entitled Lā Keiki (Kid's Day)."

The festivities continue that evening with the 65th Annual Aloha Festivals Ho'olaule'a on Kalākaua Avenue at 7pm. This year's Festival will conclude with the Aloha Festivals Floral parade on Saturday, September 30 from 10am–12pm down Kalākaua Avenue between Ala Moana Park and Kapi'olani Park. Royal Hawaiian Center will have a stage for the Ho'olaule'a on Seaside Avenue with entertainment starting at 6pm.

The line-up includes a hula kahiko performance by Ka Pā Hula o Kauanoe o Wa'ahila, Mailani Makainai, and Josh Tatofi.

LĀ KEIKI SCHEDULE

Lā Keiki day begins at 10am on Saturday, September 23 and runs until 3pm, with free activities and entertainment for the entire family.

SEPTEMBER PAU HANA HAWAIIAN NIGHTLY ENTERTAINMENT IN THE ROYAL GROVE, 6-7PM

Thursdays Waipuna

Waipuna's eclectic musical backgrounds and similar musical taste has led to the development of a unique sound. After the release of their critically-acclaimed first album, Mana'o Pili, the duo, now trio, has been blessed with the opportunity to share their music with Hawai'i and beyond.

Tuesdays Lehua Kalima & Shawn Pimental

Lehua is a member of the award-winning group, Nā Leo Pilimehana. After 19 albums and 20 Na Hoku Hanohano awards, they continue to record and perform throughout the world. Shawn Pimental is a Hōkū award-winning producer who has worked with many familiar names in the studio as a musical director, including Nā Palapalai, Keali'i Reichel, and more.

Fridays Kūpaoa

The combined talents of Kellen Paik and Lihau Hannahs Paik embody the name they've chosen for their musical presence—Kūpaoa—suffused with fragrance, or heady with scent. Their talents are many, for they infuse musical ability and charm into two sweet, rich voices to offer up an inviting blend, like a perfume that can be spicy, soothing, and alluring all at once.

Saturdays Hula Kahiko

A performance of ancient Hawaiian dance by a local hālau hula (school of Hawaiian dance). This month we feature Hālau 'Ōlapakūikala'i 'O Hōkūalani, Kumu Hula, Hōkū Nihipali.

Wednesdays Malu Productions

Malu Productions is an award-winning company that specializes in custom show presentations and services. Shows are fast paced, interactive, and sure to entertain audiences of all ages and cultural backgrounds.

HELUMOA HALE

Visit or call, 808-922-2299, for the most updated information about our cultural lessons and special events, receive a one-of-a-kind gift with an eligible purchase, or relax in our Heritage Room and learn about the rich history of Helumoa. He mai!

WELCOMING KAMAKA PILI

Royal Hawaiian Center welcomes Kamaka Pili as its new Keiki Hula Instructor. Kamaka is a homegrown Kailua boy and graduated from the Kamehameha Schools' Kapālama Campus. He received his introduction to hula while at Kamehameha and furthered his love of hula while attending school at the University of Hawai'i at Hilo. After graduating and returning to O'ahu, he joined a hālau hula (school of hula) and also studied lomilomi (traditional Hawaiian massage).

In 2015 he started his own business, Na'au Wala'au Designs; the result of learning to express his thoughts through design from his kumu. In speaking of his work, Kamaka remarks, "Every design shares a story, and to me the story is most important. The design itself is secondary." In 2016 he became the president of Native Hawaiian Arts and Culture Expo LLC. He is the host of the popular monthly 'Ōlelo TV talk show, Aloha Authentic with Kamaka Pili."

He's happy to be sharing his love of hula with keiki (children) on Mondays at 3:30 PM in The Royal Grove. He mai!

KONI AU I KA WAI WHISKEY BENEFIT

On Friday, October 13, 2017 from 5-8pm, Noi Thai Cuisine and Royal Hawaiian Center will celebrate the long-standing relationship between Thailand and Hawai'i with a special event called Koni Au I Ka Wai. On his 1881 world tour, King Kalākaua visited Siam (now called Thailand) and befriended King Chulalongkorn (Rama V). Koni Au I Ka Wai, a drinking song written by Kalākaua, Hawai'i's Merrie Monarch, and the theme for the evening pairs the exquisite award-winning gastronomy of Noi Thai Cuisine with the complexities of whiskey in its neat and mixed forms within the atmosphere of friendship begun 136 years go. He mai!
