Ho'owehiwehi Award — Call for Entries

2012 marks the seventh year that the Waikīkī Improvement Association honors those in the community whose projects possess the key components of the Revitalization of Waikīkī plan which began in 2001.

Ho'owehiwehi Awards are now celebrated yearly. Submit your nominees by August 31 (form attached). There are four categories: Hāna Nui, Hāna Iki, Pili Honua and George S. Kanahele 'Ho'okipa' Award. The submission form is attached. A committee of professional planners and executives will be responsible for selecting award recipients.

Hawaiian's 94.7% On-Time Performance Led Nation's Carriers in May

Hawaiian Airlines led the nation's 15 largest carriers in on-time performance during the month of May, according to the Air Travel Consumer Report issued today by the U.S. Department of Transportation (DOT).

Hawaiian earned the DOT's #1 ranking with its flights arriving on time at a rate of 94.7 percent, exceeding the industry average by 11.3 percentage points.

In the category of fewest flight cancellations, Hawaiian was barely edged out of the top spot for May despite having only three cancellations out of 6,246 total flights, or less than 0.1 percent. Hawaiian provides daily nonstop service to Hawai'i from 11 gateway cities in North America – more cities than any other carrier – using Airbus A330-200 and Boeing 767-300 aircraft, making it the only carrier to offer wide-body, twin-aisle aircraft for all transpacific flights.

Hawai'i's largest and longest-serving carrier is also the leading provider of air service between the islands of Hawai'i.

The DOT report is available at <http://airconsumer.ost.dot.gov/reports/atcr12.htm>.

Historic photos of Hawai'i's Boat Days in Honolulu on exhibit at the Royal Hawaiian, A Luxury Collection Resort

The Royal Hawaiian, a Luxury Collection Resort has partnered with Matson Navigation Company to present “Boat Days” exhibit showcasing a collection of rarely seen photographs of visitors traveling to Oahu on Matson ship liners. On July 18, prized images revealing archived photos of passengers arriving in Honolulu from the late 1920s to the late 1940s and their visits to The Royal Hawaiian and Hawaii will be open to the public. The exhibit will be on display at the resort's Coronet Lounge until January 31, 2013 with no admission fee.

This rare collection of photographs features the S.S. Lurline, Hula Boat Day greeting of passengers arriving at Aloha Tower, The Royal Hawaiian Band playing music at Aloha Tower, original Royal Hawaiian luggage tags, a variety of Matson travel posters, and more. Starting in the mid-1920s, visitors from all over the world began arriving at Aloha Tower on Matson passenger ships and vacationing at The Royal Hawaiian enjoying the exotic wonders offered on Waikiki Beach. Each photograph will be presented on large canvas prints lining the walls of Coronet Lounge.

Matson Navigation Company-Archives

Lurline Boat Days

Matson Navigation Company was instrumental in the development of tourism to Hawaii and the South Pacific. A fleet of Matson Lines cruise ships, the most famous being the S.S. Lurline, traveled from the mainland to Hawaii from the 1920s to 1960s. Matson built The Royal Hawaiian in 1927 so luxury accommodations were both available afloat and ashore. Matson photographers took thousands of snapshots of the celebrities and world-class travelers who traveled on its ships and vacationed in Waikiki.

Matson Navigation Company Archives encompass a vast collection of photographs and artwork from Matson Lines passenger and hotel era, 1920s to 1960s.

GIRLS GOT GAME SUNDAY BRUNCH

Hyatt Regency Waikiki Beach Resort and Spa presents a new generation of female culinary greats.

Hyatt Regency Waikiki Beach Resort and Spa Executive Chef Sven Ullrich announces the ultimate Sunday brunch on Sunday, September 9, 2012 from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. Featuring three of the culinary world's most talented female chefs: Christina Tosi, Momofuku Milk Bar, New York; Jacqueline Lau, Roy's Restaurants, Hawai'i; and, Susan Feniger, Susan Feniger's STREET, Border Grill, Los Angeles. The brunch also includes local female farmers, a coffee bar with a barista, and mixologists. One of the premier events of the Hawaii Food and Wine Festival, Girls Got Game, explores the talents of female chefs who are bringing a woman's touch to a more traditionally male dominated industry. Tickets are $85 before August 15 and $100 if purchased after and are available for purchase online at hawaiifoodandwinefestival.com or by calling (808) 237-6145.

"We are so honored to be participating in Hawaii's Food and Wine Festival. Hyatt is an industry leader in providing food that has been thoughtfully sourced and carefully served. Our corporate philosophy is to provide our guests with healthy food and beverage options that also benefit the community. This is completely in-line with everything the Hawaii Food and Wine Festival represents. To have these talented chefs visit our property and share their skills with our team and our guests is a great privilege," remarks Ullrich.

ABOUT THE CHEFS

Christina Tosi is the chef and owner of Momofuku Milk Bar, called "one of the most exciting bakeries in the country" by Bon Appetit Magazine. As founder of the dessert program at Momofuku, Christina helped Momofuku Ko earn two stars from the Michelin Guide and Momofuku Ssäm jump onto Restaurant Magazine's Top 100 Restaurants in the World list at #31. She has been shortlisted for a James Beard Foundation Rising Star Chef Award and named to the New York Times T Magazine's "Nifty Fifty" list. Christina and her confections have appeared on Martha Stewart, Live with Regis & Kelly, Conan, and The Today Show among others. Christina wrote and released The Momofuku Milk Bar cookbook in the fall of 2011, published by Random House & Clarkson Potter.

Susan Feniger is co-chef/owner of Susan Feniger's STREET and the Border Grill restaurants in Downtown LA, Santa Monica, and Las Vegas, as well as the Border Grill Truck. Susan's genuine love for the authentic flavors of home-cooked and street foods propelled her into a three-decade career as chef, restaurateur, cookbook author, and media darling, making her a preeminent ambassador of Mexican food and world cuisines. She successfully competed on Bravo's "Top Chef Masters", co-starred in Food Network's "Too Hot Tamales", and co-authored five cookbooks. Susan also shines a light on organizations like Scleroderma Research Foundation and the L.A. Gay & Lesbian Center.

Jacqueline Lau is corporate executive chef, Roy's Restaurants - Hawaii. Beginning as a pastry chef, she quietly became adept at all phases of Roy's Hawaiian Fusion cuisine, rising to the position of Yamaguchi's first Chef de Cuisine - - responsible for creating 20 - 25 new dishes a night - - by mid-1992. So impressed was Yamaguchi that in the fall of '92 he sent Jacqueline to Japan as the opening chef for his first international restaurant, Roy's Tokyo. To give her a larger outlet - - a restaurant of "her own" - - in which to explore her culinary instincts, Yamaguchi awarded Jacqueline with the position of Executive Chef of Roy's Nicolina on the island of Maui in 1993 and again with Roy's Waikoloa Bar & Grill in March of 1996. She has had the opportunity to cook with some of the best chefs in the world including: Paul Bocuse, Nobu Matsuhisa, Emeril Lagasse, Charlie Trotter, Wolfgang Puck, Ming Tsai and George Morrone. Jacqueline has been featured in several television series including: the Great Chef series (Great Chefs of Hawaii and Great Chefs of the World), Hawaii Cooks with Roy Yamaguchi and Island Chefs. She has also been recognized in the Hawaii Business News as one of the leading women chefs in Hawaii.

Halekulani Celebrates the Completion of the Renewal of its Living Legacy

Hawaii's leading luxury hotel completes a property-wide revitalization, reinforcing its longstanding tradition of leadership

Halekulani, long-celebrated for providing guests with uniquely personalized service and gracious Hawaiian hospitality, announces the July 2012 completion of a comprehensive physical and service Renewal. Halekulani's Renewal is based upon Legacy, Culture, Quality and Service, values which have made the property an iconic global destination.

New related guest experiences, services, amenities, and epicurean programs will continue to be unveiled throughout the summer and fall of 2012.

"The Renewal of Halekulani provides a unique opportunity for us to reexamine the iconic values that have built its legacy," said Peter Shaindlin, Chief Operating Officer of Halekulani Corporation.

"Drawn from the values that have established the Halekulani brand, the completion of the Renewal reflects our commitment to remain true to the hotel's original spirit while evolving and enhancing the unique experience for which we have also come to be known; providing our guests with a journey of transcendence and fulfillment that cannot be replicated."

Each of the 453 rooms and suites has been refreshed to further capture the natural light and airy visual expanses on to the sea. The hotel's renowned 'seven shades of white' color tones have been reinvigorated to emphasize the seaside setting, tropical elements and the spirit evocative of Halekulani. All guestrooms are outfitted with new furnishings, providing a more spacious feel with more contemporary conveniences such as new accessories and amenities, sophisticated lighting design, revitalized bedding and linens, enhanced in-room technology, as well as reconceived new bathrooms and new lanai furniture.

As part of the Renewal, new and enhanced culinary programs and menus are also being unveiled including a unique new bar concept, L'Aperitif at La Mer, newly-styled Afternoon Tea experience, and new menus throughout the property.

The Renewal of Halekulani inaugurates a new era for an icon that will forever remain synonymous with unparalleled quality, excellence and the unrivaled, authentic experience of Hawaii. While Halekulani may continue to evolve, its legacy of excellence will always remain forefront.

Onaga's career began at the Best Western Plaza Hotel on its bell staff, and has also worked a variety of positions with Hardware Hawaii, Diamond Parking and Gate Gourmet.

Hawaiian Diacritical Marks

Waikiki Improvement Association recognizes the use of diacritical marks (i.e., glottal stop (ʻ), macron (ā) in place names of Hawaiʻi, such as Waikīkī and Kalākaua Avenue and will include them whenever possible. We also respect the individual use (or not) of these markings for names of organizations and businesses.

There will also be times when we may not have a chance to add or change the markings in all of the articles submitted and when that happens, e kala mai.

EMBASSY SUITES®

WAIKIKI BEACH WALK®

Yoga at Embassy Suites-Waikiki Beach Walk

Complimentary yoga classes and in-room yoga video is newest amenity for guests at this Hawaii resort

Embassy Suites-Waikiki Beach Walk, renowned for its spacious accommodations in paradise, brings the art of yoga to its already abundant list of complimentary amenities.

Guests of this Hawaii resort now have the opportunity to participate in free one-hour yoga classes on the resort's Grand Lanai or practice yoga in the privacy of their suite with a new yoga video channel that has been added to the resort's in-suite television offerings.

"Wellness is a guiding principle at Embassy Suites-Waikiki Beach Walk and our new yoga platform is an exciting extension of this," said Susan Koehler, sales and marketing director for the resort. "A poolside morning yoga class is a glorious way to start the day and the new in-suite yoga offering enables our guests to find a bit of Zen in their own space."

The "basic yoga flow" classes on the Grand Lanai are taught by a certified instructor and take place from 7 to 8 a.m. every Tuesday and Friday morning*. Yoga mats from Lululemon Athletic are provided free of charge, so no need to pack one! Having plenty of room to stretch out has always been a benefit of staying at Oahu's only all-suite resort; now with a one-hour yoga class looped into the Embassy Suites-Waikiki Beach Walk TV system on Channel 40, guests can utilize the living room space to enjoy the art of yoga.

The in-suite videos are taught by Hawaii residents, one being Lilly Barels, an accomplished yoga instructor, ambassador for Lululemon Athletic, professional dancer and high school physics teacher. She has been evolving her yoga practice in Hawaii since 2003, incorporating yoga philosophy, anatomy and physiology as well as sacred path energy work.

"Like the serenity and peace found uniquely in Hawaii, yoga has the same potential to balance the practitioner," said Barels. "It is my hope that the instruction will help foster a feeling of wellness on and off the mat for the guests of Embassy Suites-Waikiki Beach Walk."

Accommodations at Embassy Suites-Waikiki Beach Walk include one and two-bedroom suites with a separate living room. Guests can request either a king or two queen-beds in each room; the two-bedroom suites can easily sleep up to six people and feature separate entrances, allowing children and/or relatives their own private room, closed-off from the main suite. All suites feature deluxe bedding, two or three flat-panel LCD TVs, mini refrigerator, wet bar, microwave, coffee maker, high-speed Internet access and a MP3/CD player clock radio.

After a morning yoga class, the Grand Lanai is the place to find a complimentary, Full Cooked-to-Order breakfast. Healthy options include egg-white omelets and fresh fruits alongside traditional favorites including pancakes and pastries. In the evening, the Grand Lanai hosts a nightly manager's reception* with complimentary refreshments, snacks and live Hawaiian entertainment on select evenings.

Hawaiian Airlines Improves Neighbor Island Affordability, Access *New Fare Structure, Expanded Fleet Aimed at Kama'āina Customer

Hawaiian Airlines today implemented a new fare structure for neighbor island travel that lowers ticket prices across all of its fare classes from 4 to 25 percent.

The new rates, which are available for booking today on www.HawaiianAir.com, are designed to stimulate increased kama'āina travel.

Under the new fare structure, the lowest fare for a one-way nonstop interisland flight (including taxes and mandatory federal fees) is $65 for travel from Honolulu to Kahului and Līhu'e.

The new structure's three lowest fares from Honolulu to Kahului, Līhu'e, Hilo and Kona are all lower than the previously published lowest web fare (see chart below).

In addition, the airline's parent company, Hawaiian Holdings, has signed a Letter of Intent to acquire turbo-prop aircraft with the aim of establishing a subsidiary carrier to serve routes not currently in Hawaiian's neighbor island system.

"We are committed to providing safe, frequent and reliable service that allows our residents to travel more easily between all the islands, and we believe the additional capacity and new fares will encourage that," said Peter Ingram, Hawaiian's executive vice president and chief commercial officer.

The new fare structure complements the additional neighbor island capacity and routes Hawaiian introduced earlier this year. Over the past year, Hawaiian has increased capacity by 13 percent and created a Maui hub to increase service between the Valley Isle, Kaua'i and Hawai'i Island. The turbo-prop subsidiary will allow Hawaiian to further expand capacity with daily flights to rural areas.

Hawaiian has offered "Hawaiian Saver" fare sales over the last several months as a way to test customer response to a variety of pricing options, explained Ingram. The Hawaiian Saver fare, which has some restrictions, proved to be attractive to highly cost-conscious travelers. As a result, Hawaiian Saver fares will now anchor the airline's fare structure as a restricted "guaranteed lowest available fare." All other base fares have also been reduced to provide attractive pricing throughout the day on all of Hawaiian's 170 daily neighbor island flights.

"By offering a greater variety of pricing options across our flight schedule every day we hope to make it easier for people to take the extra trip they might not have taken if the lower fares weren't available," said Ingram. "Having said that, it will always be true that the best value is available to those who book early on HawaiianAir.com, and we encourage all of our customers to do that."

Michael Wilding Named General Manager of DoubleTree by Hilton Alana Waikiki Hotel

Michael Wilding has been named general manager of DoubleTree by Hilton Alana Waikiki. The 317-room, full-service hotel recently underwent a $16 million transformation to its guest rooms, lobby and function space.

Wilding most recently served as resident manager at the Hilton Hawaiian Village Waikiki Beach Resort. He first started at the flagship property in 2000 as director of front office operations, and was later promoted to executive assistant manager, before being promoted to resident manager in 2007. Wilding began his career with Hilton Hotels in 1989 at the Irvine Hilton & Towers as a food and beverage management trainee. In 1991, he moved to the Hilton Anaheim Hotel & Towers where he was promoted to front office manager of the 1,576-room property. Since then, he has served at two other Hiltons in California, including the Hilton Los Angeles as assistant director of front office operations, and the Hilton Los Angeles Airport, where he was director of front office operations. Throughout his career, Michael has been recognized for his leadership, winning the Hilton Leadership Award twice.

A native of Austria, Michael graduated from the Business College in Feldkirchen and also has a degree in Tourism from the College of Tourism and Hotel Management in Vienna. He and his wife Una are the parents of two sons.

Hawaiian Building Maintenance Promotes Jarrett Walters to Vice President of Operations

Hawaiian Building Maintenance (HBM), the largest facilities services company in the state, has promoted Jarrett Walters to Vice President of Operations.

“We are pleased to promote Jarrett to such an important position in our company,” said Karl Fujii, Executive Vice President of HBM. “Jarrett’s experience and leadership skills will help HBM carry out our legacy, in providing dependable, quality and cost efficient solutions for property management and the building services community.”

Jarrett Walters joined the company in 2006 as Director of Retail Operations. Most recently, he served as the company’s Executive Director of Building Services, where he oversaw commercial and retail operations. He is currently responsible for overseeing sales, quality control, customer services, operations and strategic development.

Prior to joining HBM, Walters worked as the District Manager for Mobile Instrument Service and Repair. Walters earned his bachelor’s degree in politics from Princeton University and is a graduate of Hawaii Baptist Academy.

Hawaiian Increases Seoul Flights to Daily

Starting today, Hawaiian Airlines is increasing the frequency of its nonstop flights between Honolulu and Seoul, South Korea to daily service. The airline has been operating four flights per week since launching the route in January 2011.

By increasing to daily flights Hawaiian is adding more than 40,000 new air seats annually to the Honolulu-Seoul route, and will provide more than 96,000 air seats in total over a full year.

“Demand for our Korea service grew steadily over its first year as we expected, and we couldn’t be more pleased about expanding to daily service and the increasing benefits this will bring to Hawai‘i’s visitor industry,” said Executive Vice President and Chief Commercial Officer Peter Ingram.

The added flights will help meet growing demand for Hawai‘i from travelers in Korea and other Asian countries that make connecting flights through Seoul. During the first five months of 2012, total air seats on the Seoul-Honolulu route increased by 33% to nearly 140,000 seats year-over year compared to the same period in 2011, according to the most recent visitor statistics reported by the Hawai‘i Tourism Authority.

Hawaiian has helped contribute to the growth in traffic from Korea, both with its service and celebration of the Hawai‘i travel experience during the flight. Travelers from Korea are treated to Hawaiian’s distinctive ‘Hawai‘i Flies With Us’ inflight hospitality and its showcase of the culture, natural beauty, people, and Aloha Spirit of Hawai‘i. Hawaiian complements its service with Korean entertainment options and special onboard amenities for the enjoyment of the Korean traveler.

Hawaiian Flight HA 459 departs Honolulu International Airport daily at 12:00 p.m., crosses the international dateline, and arrives at Seoul’s Incheon International Airport at 4:35 p.m. the following day. The return Flight HA 460 departs Seoul daily at 10:00 p.m., crosses the international dateline, and arrives in Honolulu at 12:05 p.m. the same day.

Hawaiian will continue to operate the route using its wide-body, twin-aisle Boeing 767-300ER aircraft that comfortably seats 264 passengers, with 18 in Business Class and 246 in the Main Cabin. Hawaiian plans to introduce its newest and largest aircraft, the 294-seat, wide-body twin-aisle Airbus A330-200, on the Seoul-Honolulu route at a later date.

Tickets can be purchased at www.HawaiianAirlines.co.kr, Hawaiian’s Korean-language website, or www.HawaiianAirlines.com, its English-language website, or by calling toll-free in the U.S. to its reservations center at 1-800-367-5320 or to its South Korea sales office at 82-2-775-5552.
