At Japengo, Seven is More Than a Lucky Number

The restaurant celebrates new hours with an extended happy hour and special sampler menus.

Japengo Restaurant, located on the third floor Ewa Tower of Hyatt Regency Waikiki Beach Resort and Spa, invites the public to celebrate the transition to nightly service with a Sushi Lounge Happy Hour celebration throughout the month of April. Beginning April 1, 2012, Japengo, Waikiki's new Pacific Rim restaurant, will extend its operations from Wednesday through Sunday to every night of the week from 5:30 to 10:00 p.m. As a thank you to patrons, the Happy Hour menu will also be extended until 7 p.m. throughout April. For those looking to get the very most of their visit, the restaurant will also feature two special all inclusive sampler menus.

"Last year we knew ahead of time that opening two new restaurants and a pool bar was a tall order for a busy hotel like ours. When Japengo debuted, we knew we had to adjust to the market slowly," says Vincent Brunetti director of Food and Beverage at Hyatt Regency Waikiki Beach Resort and Spa. "Being open seven days a week is going to be a very positive move for us and for our guests; to thank our already large numbers of fans, we are extending our happy hour as a way of saying mahalo."

The Japengo Happy Hour is in the Sushi Bar and Lounge and available nightly from 5:30 to 7:00 p.m. throughout April. Featured items include Edamame, Beef Kushiyaki, Japengo Fried Chicken, the California Roll as well as select draft beers, wines, and cocktails. Happy hour prices range from $5 to $7.

For those new to the Japengo experience, two new sampler menus have been created and are ideal for sharing with another. Enjoy the four-course menu featuring the delectable Emperor's Prime Sirloin, Prawn Mango Salad, Blackened Ahi Roll, and Molokai Sweet Potato Cheesecake for $65. The five-course menu features some of the greatest hits yet - Scallop Butter Yaki, Dragon Roll, Prawn and Mango Salad, Filet of Beef and Prawns, as well as Japengo Coconut Crème Brulee for $85.

To find out more about Japengo Restaurant or to make a reservation, please call (808) 237-6180 or visit online at waikiki.hyatt.com. Reservations are also available at Open Table.

“Rainbow for Japan Kids”

Royal Hawaiian Center is participating in Rainbow for Japan Kids, a charity program that supports children who were affected by the Japan earthquake and tsunami. Twenty-two middle school students from Fukushima, Iwate and Miyagi prefectures arrived in Honolulu yesterday and were greeted by Hawaiian music and hula at Royal Hawaiian Center in Waikiki. They were treated to a welcome dinner at the Center's new Five Star International Buffet and enjoyed local favorites such as loco moco and fresh ahi poke.

Royal Hawaiian Center provided eco-friendly tote bags and gift cards. Participating merchants including Crazy Shirts, Honolulu Cookie Company, Island Soap & Candle Works, Jams World, Panya and Simply Wood Studios donated gift items. Olivia Hawaiian Jewelry provided a monetary donation to the Japan-America Society of Hawaii (JASH) for Rainbow for Japan Kids.

JASH, along with the support from Hawaii corporate sponsors such as Royal Hawaiian Center, organizes Rainbow for Japan Kids. The program focuses on the "healing" property of the Islands and provides educational and learning experiences for the children during a 10-day stay in Hawaii. The students will also have opportunities to interact with children in Hawaii to build a lasting relationship between Hawaii and Japan. This is the 3rd group to visit Hawaii.

Loro Piana to Debut its First Hawaii Store at Royal Hawaiian Center

Renowned internationally for its luxurious cashmere and wool fabrics, Loro Piana will open a 2,705-square-foot, two-level flagship store at Royal Hawaiian Center in Waikiki in Fall 2012. This will be the company's first store in Hawaii, 18th in the United States, and 137th worldwide.

“We are delighted to have Hawaii's first Loro Piana store join our luxury retailers at Royal Hawaiian Center,” said Rosalind Schurgin, CEO of The Festival Companies, which manages and leases the Center. “The addition of this distinctive luxury brand will certainly appeal to discerning local clientele in addition to sophisticated shoppers from all over the world.”

Over the past twenty years, Loro Piana has become the largest cashmere manufacturer and primary purchaser of the world's finest wools, offering exclusive garments and elegant lines designed for men, women and children, along with home furnishings, accessories and gifts. All items are manufactured within the company's own facilities in Italy.

The main entrance is located on Kalakaua Avenue toward the Diamond Head end of the Center on level 1 of Building C between Tourneau and Juicy Couture.

Picture a perfect week-long Hawaii holiday – then enter for a chance to win it, including deluxe accommodations, airfare, and captivating experiences that can be found only in paradise! Outrigger Hotels and Resorts' "Picture Your Perfect Hawaii Getaway" online sweepstakes offers an easy way for travelers to make their perfect Hawaii vacation a possible dream come true.

The Grand Prize: One grand-prize winner will receive roundtrip flights for two on Hawaiian Airlines, a six-night stay at an Outrigger hotel or condo on Oahu, Kauai, Maui or Hawaii Island, and complimentary island adventure activities.

How to Enter: Log on to www.outrigger.com/pictureperfect. Each day for 28 days from March 21 to April 18, 2012, Outrigger will display a postcard of a lovely Hawaii scene and entrants need to identify where, who, or what it is. Select from four multiple choice answers – simple! A correct answer gets two daily entries. A wrong answer gets one daily entry. Individuals are invited to come back every day to identify a different image and improve their chance of winning! A random drawing to select the winner will be conducted on or about May 11, 2012. The odds of winning will depend upon the number of eligible entries received.

"Outrigger Hotels and Resorts has shared millions of unforgettable memories with guests from across the globe," said Rob Solomon, senior vice president and chief marketing officer of Outrigger Enterprises Group. "Whether dreaming of their first Hawaii vacation or their next, we welcome travelers to enter for a chance to stay with us and create new picture-perfect remembrances to share and treasure."

Winners will receive a stay in one of Outrigger's fully furnished Hawaii condos, luxurious ocean-view hotel rooms, or impressive beachfront resorts. The sweepstakes prize also includes exciting adventures of the winner's choosing, from snorkeling and sailing to helicopter and zip-line rides and more. These action-packed activities provide an opportunity to discover our islands in diverse ways. Whether cruising Kauai's Napali Coast, exploring marine life on Maui, trekking volcano trails on Hawaii Island, or touring urban Honolulu on Oahu, winners can fashion their own picture-perfect fun!

Sweepstakes entrants must be legal residents of the 50 United States, the District of Columbia, or Canada (excluding Quebec) who are 18 years of age or older and have online access as of the date of entry. Officers, directors, employees or agents of Outrigger Hotels Hawaii or any of its affiliated companies, Hawaiian Airlines, Inc., or any of its affiliated companies, or any vendors of the Outrigger Entities or the Hawaiian Airline Entities and their immediate families or persons living in the same household are not eligible. Void outside the 50 United States, the District of Columbia, Canada, and where prohibited.

Waikī Community Centert Honoring Innumerable Acts of Kindness

Senior & Makana Ola Loa Awards Acknowledging and honoring innumerable acts of kindness and selfless service was the highlight of our Annual Meeting held at Hale Koa Hotel on March 7. It was reported that 8,077 hours of volunteer service were recorded at the Center in 2011, valued at $145,000, the equivalent of at least 3 FT administrative staff. We congratulate our Volunteer of the Year, Makana Ola Loa Award honorees and corporate partners who positively impacted our community and supported the Waikiki Community Center in 2011.

Helene Webster – Volunteer of the Year – was honored for her 12 years of dutiful service to the Waikiki Community Center. She first started helping out as a local ambassador for the Center, escorting bridal parties from Japan to various activities at the Waikiki Sheraton. Helene serves on the Member Advisory Council of the Center and she's staffed our welcome desk and when called upon Helene rises, willing to prioritize the needs of the Center over some of her other commitments. Helene fulfilled a 25-year career at the Honolulu Advertiser where she made her mark providing legendary customer service. She joined the Center as a member and started taking line dancing classes. Helene also volunteers at the Blood Bank, Deputy Treasurer for the local chapter of the Republican Party, Hospitality Chair for the Outdoor Circle. We are grateful for Helene's genuine commitment, kindness and dedication she offers in her volunteer role and we thank her for her energy, initiative, accessibility and joyful constitution these past 12 years.

McDonald's (Waikiki Lemon Street Store) has provided free breakfasts and coffee for our Duke Challenge event crews of volunteers and monthly gift cards that we offer as prizes at McBingo for 27 consecutive years. Mr. Kelly Burgett, Operations Consultant and Ms. Rencie Masungsong, Manager, accepted the award for McDonald's.

Duke's Waikiki leveraged $22,000 in operational support from the Hawaii Community Foundation since 2007 and for the past 5 years collected canned foods at Christmas for the hungry and collected, wrapped and distributed Christmas gifts for each of the 125 special needs children from Jefferson School for the Center's annual holiday party hosted by our preschool children. Ross Anderson, Vice President of Operations, and Dylan Ching, General Manager of Duke's, accepted the award for Duke's Waikiki.

Hilton Hawaiian Village served as the title sponsor and host of the Duke Kahanamoku Challenge event, contributed $40,000 to the Center over the past 2 years, engaged other hotels and businesses, provided significant non-cash contributions for planning, public relations and communications support and staff time for a community-loved Jerry Gibson, Honorary Chair; Henry Perez, Event Chair; Bob Hampton – Waikiki Beach Activities; Lora Gallagher; Cynthia Rankin; and Dara Young received a special o`o stick, symbolic of building and working together.

Hawaiian Diacritical Marks

Waikīkī Improvement Association recognizes the use of diacritical marks (i.e., glottal stop (ʻ), macron (ā) in place names of Hawaiʻi, such as Waikīkī and Kalākaua Avenue and will include them whenever possible. We also respect the individual use (or not) of these markings for names of organizations and businesses.

There will also be times when we may not have a chance to add or change the markings in all of the articles submitted and when that happens, e kala mai.

Crazy Fish Boutique Opens at Royal Hawaiian Center

Featuring women's resort apparel and accessories with local flair

Locally owned Crazy Fish has opened an 880-square-foot boutique at Royal Hawaiian Center. The store offers easy-to-wear women's resort attire with bright patterns, uniquely hand-painted designs and detailed embroidery, as well as stylish matching outfits, fashion accessories and shoes. Crazy Fish is located on level 1 of Building C.

For the past 18 years, Mary Lo and her daughter Glendy Lo have designed a variety of Hawaii-inspired clothing collections under their exclusive Crazy Fish line, ranging from classic fish prints to tropical floral patterns suitable for any personality. In 2009, Mary and Glendy joined Royal Hawaiian Center's merchants with Royal Fish, a store featuring matching mother and daughter styles with fashion for young girls, toddlers and babies.

"Mary and Glendy have been wonderful tenants and we are pleased to see them expand into this second retail space," said Marleen Akau, general manager for Royal Hawaiian Center. "This is a nice complement to their first boutique at the Center."

"At Crazy Fish we are offering more options for women who seek contemporary and colorful outfits," said Owner Mary Lo. "In addition to our Crazy Fish line, this store also features renowned women's brands such as Desigual."

All Crazy Fish clothing is made from either 100% cotton, rayon and/or silk fabrics, which makes them perfect for Hawaii's tropical climate year-round. Crazy Fish is open daily from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m.

Taste the Joy of Kimukatsu at Aston Waikiki Joy Hotel

It's joyous news for lovers of one of Japan's most treasured treats: Kimukatsu's special tonkatsu is now being served in the U.S., at the newly opened Kimukatsu Waikiki at the Aston Waikiki Joy Hotel. The restaurant, open daily from 11 a.m. to 11 p.m., is located steps from Kalakaua Avenue in the heart of Waikiki. With 21 award-winning locations across Japan, Kimukatsu Waikiki is the restaurant's first location outside of Japan.

Head chef Masaki Ikeda describes Kimukatsu's method of tonkatsu preparation as a standout on the culinary scene. Kimukatsu uses prime choice pork, sliced paper-thin and stacked into 25 layers, then covered with fresh breadcrumbs and slowly fried at low temperature. The natural juices are sealed between the layers, making it extremely juicy and flavorful. Each order comes with rice, cabbage salad and miso soup.

"The restaurant is a great fit for the hotel and offers a unique opportunity to enjoy a dish previously found only in Japan," says Daniel Nakasone, general manager of the Aston Waikiki Joy Hotel. "Hotel guests are pleased to have a quiet, casual dining option that opens to both the hotel's lobby and Lewers Street fronting the hotel."

The Aston Waikiki Joy Hotel is an oasis of quiet, surrounded by shopping, activities and nightlife. From hotel rooms to one-bedroom suites, all rooms include relaxing Jacuzzi tubs, stereo systems with bedside controls, private lanais and welcoming marble entryways, soundproofed to ensure a restful atmosphere. Complimentary continental breakfast is available each morning in the lobby, with Kimukatsu Waikiki ready to serve guests for lunch and dinner.

"Spring into Action with Aston" and book your spring vacation at Aston Waikiki Joy Hotel with offers too good to miss. Rates for the limited time offer start from only $103/night. Book now through June 30 for travel through June 30, 2012. Blackout dates and some restrictions apply. Prices do not include taxes or fees, are subject to change without notice and cannot be combined with any other promotions. For more information visit www.AstonWaikikiJoy.com.

Introducing Alohana.com, Inc.

Alohana.com, Inc. is the latest member of the Waikiki Improvement Association. Alohana.com is an exciting new way for owners and managers of vacation rental properties to advertise and market their properties online in Japanese and English. In addition to advertising rental properties, you also can advertise special services, recreation and entertainment activities, to a bilingual audience.

Based in Honolulu, HI, we understand the unique needs of the Hawaii vacation rental market.

Property owners or managers can create their own vacation rental listings on our easy to use website. Your listing then goes into our search-able database where visitors to Hawaii can browse listings and find the property that meets their needs.

By publishing your rental property/B & B information (in English & Japanese), you increase your property's exposure to reach the more than 1.2 million annual Japanese visitors to Hawaii. Don't worry if you don't speak Japanese. We can translate your listing into Japanese for you.

BASIC LISTINGS ARE JUST $240 PER YEAR!

How to get started?

To start, go to Alohana.com. On the top right, click on "add a listing", and follow the prompts to add your listing to our site!

Please send questions, comments, advice, etc. to them at Comments@Alohana.com.

10,000 Japanese Travelers Follow Hawaii-Arukikata Twitter

The Japanese language Twitter Account—Hawai'i Arukikata <https://twitter.com/#!/hawaiiarukikata> received its 10,000th Twitter follower—making it a significant social media personality in Japan for Hawaii. Hawaii-Arukikata posted its first Tweet on April 11, 2009, becoming the first in the travel industry to Tweet about Hawaii in Japanese.

“Hawaii-Arukikata’s following is largely Japanese international travelers who love Hawaii,” said Akiko Ching, Chief Editor and Content Manager of New Media and Web Portal Sites at PacRim Marketing Group. “We Tweeted a total of 13,567 messages in 1068 days by mid-March; that’s an average of 12.7 Tweets a day.”

Hawaii-Arukikata’s far reaching effect and positive impact was felt following the earthquake and tsunami last March. “We addressed the crisis and Japanese peoples’ needs directly, conversing on Twitter how those affected could find help and posting comforting thoughts and graphics links,” Ching said.

The Hawaii-Arukikata Twitter account is linked to PacRim Marketing Group’s popular web portal site, www.Hawaii-Arukikata.com, the largest commercial website about Hawaii in Japanese. The site, which gets an average of 600,000 visits and 2.8 million page views per month constantly ranks at the top of the largest Japanese search engines, including Google and Yahoo! Japan. It is updated every weekday and focuses on the latest news from Hawaii, with informative features on cuisine, culture, fashion, events and entertainment. Built on ongoing reports compiled from Hawaii and integrated with other social media networks and videos from Hawaii, the website has become a trusted source of information, entertainment, and networking.

As an important part of the social media communications strategy, the Hawaii-Arukikata site has posted more than 600 videos about Hawaii, including interviews with Japanese travelers, events, hotel and dining, and activity videos. All videos are in YouTube format, less than three minutes, short, informative, and attention grabbing. “We have had more than 2,334,820 video viewers,” said Dave Erdman, PacRim Marketing Group President and CEO. “We use Twitter to alert users that we have posted a new video.”

“For more than ten years, the web portal site has been a way for those who love Hawaii to stay in touch with the islands, learn more, and share their thoughts and feelings about Hawaii,” said Ching.

The website hosts 6 Japanese language Twitter feeds. Together, the Twitter accounts have more than 16,000 followers who PacRim’s website and social media teams correspond with on a daily basis. Each Twitter account focuses on a special interest, such as gourmet food, shopping, or activities in Hawaii. The Twitter accounts include: www.twitter.com/pacrimmarketing; www.twitter.com/HawaiiArukikata; www.twitter.com/Hawaiidegohan; www.hawaii-arukikata.com. ## HawaiianMiles Charities Awarded 9.2 Million Miles to Hawaii Nonprofits in 2011

Hawaiian Airlines' HawaiianMiles Charities program awarded 9.2 million miles to nine Hawai'i nonprofit organizations in 2011, helping them to stretch their budgets and enhance their ability to reach those in need.

The donated miles could be used for 1,227 neighbor island flight tickets – enough to fill 10 of Hawaiian's 123-seat B717 aircraft – or 460 tickets for flights between Hawaii and any of Hawaiian's 10 mainland gateway cities.

Mark Dunkerley, Hawaiian's president and CEO, commented, "We support the vital work that these charitable organizations perform every day in our communities and applaud our HawaiianMiles members for their generosity in helping them to fulfill their missions."

HawaiianMiles Charities supports the work of designated Hawaii nonprofits by allowing Hawaiian's frequent flyer members to donate all or a portion of their mileage into a special account managed on behalf of each organization by the airline.

Hawaiian Airlines supports the member contributions by making annual matching gifts of up to 500,000 miles to each nonprofit. Of the 9.2 million miles awarded in 2011, HawaiianMiles members donated 5.9 million miles and Hawaiian donated 3.3 million matching miles.

The Hawaii State Chapter of the American Red Cross received 2.2 million HawaiianMiles in 2011, the most of any program participant, with 1.7 million miles donated by members and 500,000 miles by Hawaiian. "The care and support of the American Red Cross is needed statewide and being able to rely on the generosity of Hawaiian Airlines and its frequent flyer members to allay our travel costs is a huge benefit and means we can put more funding into other assistance programs," said Coralie Matayoshi, CEO of the American Red Cross, Hawaii Chapter.

Shriners Hospitals for Children® in Honolulu received 1.6 million HawaiianMiles last year, 1.1 million miles in member donations and 500,000 miles from Hawaiian. "The HawaiianMiles Charities program is critical to our mission of providing care that children desperately need, regardless of a family's ability to pay," said Stan Berry, Shriners Hospital Administrator. "Because of the generosity of Hawaiian and its frequent flyer members, many children from the neighbor islands and throughout the Pacific Basin are able to stand taller or walk for the first time, and enjoy the same activities as other children."

Eleven Hawaii nonprofit organizations are designated for participation in HawaiianMiles Charities this year: American Cancer Society; American Red Cross; Big Brothers Big Sisters of Honolulu; Blood Bank of Hawaii; Friends of Hokule'a and Hawai'i'loa; HUGS; Maui Forest Bird Recovery Project; National Kidney Foundation; Read Aloud America; Shriners Hospitals, and; Special Olympics.

To learn more about supporting the nonprofit organizations in the HawaiianMiles Charities program, visit online at www.HawaiianAirlines.com/HawaiianMiles/donate-miles/. Donating miles to any or all of the 11 nonprofits is easy, convenient and accomplished online.

In addition to the support offered nonprofits by the HawaiianMiles Charities program, Hawaiian Airlines and its employees support a multitude of charities, nonprofit organizations and community events throughout Hawaii annually with cash, in-kind and manpower donations.

Waikīkī Wiki Wiki Wire - Newsletter Deadline

The WIA newsletter is published 2x per month—generally on the first and third Thursday.

Hawaii Prince Hotel Waikiki Hires Robert Coburn as Hotel Assistant Manager

Coburn, who grew up in Hawaii and attended Kahuku High School, has spent the past 14 years working in Las Vegas. His most recent position was resort manager of the 2,700-luxury room Cosmopolitan of Las Vegas Hotel. He has also worked at the Four Seasons Hotel Las Vegas, Red Rock Resort & Casino and Treasure Island Hotel & Casino.

Prior to moving to Las Vegas in 1997, he was an assistant guest service manager for the Hyatt Regency Waikiki. He previously worked for several other Hawaii properties including the Sheraton Waikiki Hotel and Halekulani.

"Robert's extensive management experience in luxury resort properties on the Mainland and in Waikiki is a good fit for our hotel and we're very pleased to see him return to the Islands as part of our leadership team," said Wade Gestuyala, hotel manager of Hawaii Prince Hotel Waikiki.

Coburn holds a bachelors degree in hospitality and tourism management from Brigham Young University Hawaii and a hotel management diploma from the Travel Institute of the Pacific.

Located at the entrance to Waikiki, the Hawaii Prince Hotel Waikiki and Golf Club is appointed with all oceanfront accommodations and world-class service at one of Oahu's most desirable and convenient locations.

Prince Resorts Hawaii, Inc. operates three hotels in Hawaii: Hawaii Prince Hotel Waikiki, Hapuna Beach Prince Hotel and Mauna Kea Beach Hotel. The company also operates three golf courses: Hawaii Prince Golf Club, Hapuna Golf Course and Mauna Kea Golf Course.

Outrigger Hotels and Resorts Collects 750,000 Recyclables from its Waikiki Properties in 2011

Reducing trash, promoting sustainability and donating Hi5 deposits to local charities are all elements of Outrigger's campaign to go green and give back to the island community

In its ongoing efforts to “go green,” Outrigger Hotels and Resorts collected a total of 750,000 recyclables in 2011 at its owned and operated hotels throughout Waikiki, preventing more than 17.5 tons of recyclable bottles and cans from entering Honolulu's landfill. Additionally, Outrigger then donated more than $18,000 in Hi5 redemption reimbursements to Parents and Children Together (PACT), a non-profit organization that offers social services to Hawaii families in need.

“Giving back to the community and helping to keep our island home unmarked by pollution are tremendously important to Outrigger Hotels and Resorts,” said Barry Wallace, executive vice president of hospitality services. “One of our core corporate values is ‘wahi,’ the Hawaiian word meaning ‘place,’ which states ‘we protect, care for and live in harmony with the land, our workplace, its people and cultures.’ Outrigger’s recycling program is just one example of our company’s and employees’ commitment to living our values and being contributing members of both our island home as well as the larger global community.”

Outrigger’s in-room recycling program is a simple and easy process. A card is placed in each guest room that encourages visitors to leave recyclable plastic bottles and aluminum cans in a designated bin or area. Housekeeping collects the recyclables during the normal servicing of each guest room, and then the items are stored for regular pick-up by Reynolds Recycling.

Outrigger properties that participate in the recycling program include: Outrigger Waikiki on the Beach, Outrigger Reef on the Beach, Outrigger Luana Waikiki, OHANA Waikiki East, OHANA Waikiki West, OHANA Waikiki Malia, Embassy Suites®-Waikiki Beach Walk® and Holiday Inn® Waikiki Beachcomber Resort. Resorts deserving special praise for collecting more than 140,000 recyclables each in 2011 include: Outrigger Waikiki on the Beach, Outrigger Reef on the Beach, and Embassy Suites-Waikiki Beach Walk.

Outrigger Hotels and Resorts began its current recycling program with Outrigger Waikiki on the Beach in 2006. The OHANA Waikiki East joined the program in 2008, and the other hotels came onboard in 2009.

Overseeing the program is Alan Naito, general manager of OHANA Waikiki East. “It’s been exciting and personally satisfying to see our Waikiki recycling program grow from year to year,” said Naito. “We collected more than a million recyclables from just a few of our properties between 2006 and 2009. With eight hotels participating in 2010, we were able to collect more than 714,000 recyclables alone, a number we happily surpassed in 2011.”

Another green initiative that Naito is championing at Outrigger is the company’s partnership with local company Island Shell LLC and its Whoa! FAT™ Kitchen Oil Disposal Box program. It starts by used newspapers and old phone books being collected from Outrigger properties in Waikiki. Island Shell picks up these items, takes them to its facility, grinds them up, and uses them for filler in cooking-oil recycling boxes, which are now being sold in supermarkets. The Whoa! FAT™ Kitchen Oil Disposal Box holds about a quart of used cooking oil, which then can be thrown away in the home curbside “grey bins” and taken to the city’s H-Power plant for recycling into electric energy. Use of this Hawaii State Government-approved product helps prevent the clogging and backing up of drains and sewers in Honolulu.

Traditional recycling of items such as plastic bottles, aluminum cans, newspapers and phone books is not the only green effort in place at Outrigger. The Outrigger Waikiki and Outrigger Reef hotels have worked with local retailer Kini Beach for the past several years to collect grass beach mats, plastic body boards, air mattresses, inner tubes and other “disposable” beach toys left behind in hotel rooms by departing guests. These items are then collected by Kini Beach and turned into chic eco-products like handbags and totes, and canoe or stand-up-paddle covers that are sold in stores across the state.

Halekulani Debuts New La`ikū Services at Spahalekulani

A New Treatment Series Harnessing the Energy Healing Powers of Natural Shells

SpaHalekulani, an innovative oasis that has long been celebrated for transporting guests through a cultural journey to uncover the mystical cultures of Asia, Hawaii and the South Pacific, unveils the La`ikū Facial and Pedicure. The 105-minute ode to Hawaii's indigenous beautifying ingredients and healing rituals brings a sense of peace and wellbeing to the mind, face and body. The facial is offered as part of a package with the La`ikū Waterless Pedicure to offer guests a Hawaiian beauty experience from head to toe.

"La`ikū means great calm in Hawaiian. We wanted to create a treatment that allowed each client to smell, touch and feel the beauty, energy and healing power of the islands," says Spa Operations Manager Kayla Emblom. "This new signature facial brings a sense of peace and well-being from beginning to end and is an exemplification of Halekulani's best."

Exclusive to the La`ikū treatments, the new signature facial features energy healing with handpicked cone- and fan-shaped shells to "pick" and "scoop" the energy blockage along the spine. Warm shells are placed on Chakra points to release energy blockage along the spine, décolleté, neck and face.

The facial continues with a steam, thorough cleaning, application of masks and other complexion rejuvenating skincare from Hawaii's own Pure & True Organic Beauty skincare collection. Indigenous ingredients such as deep-sea water, blue-green algae extract, hibiscus and papaya are applied while tension-relieving massage is delivered to the arms, legs, hands, neck and shoulders.

As with all facial treatments offered at SpaHalekulani, the La`ikū experiences begin on the serene spa terrace with the SpaHalekulani's Signature Foot Pounding Ritual and concludes with an offering of the spa's coconut rooibos tea and sweet snack served in the tranquil outdoor terrace.

Guests may also choose to add the new La`ikū Waterless Pedicure as an a la carte service to enhance their facial experience. The first of its kind, the eco-friendly Waterless Pedicure is offered in the spa's new Zero-Gravity chairs by Human Touch. Designed to place the body in a virtually weightless position, the Zero-Gravity chairs help relieve back pain and sore muscles. The pedicure includes the La`ikū natural shell healing, massage, exfoliation and a rejuvenating mask to pamper tired feet.

The La`ikū facial is available as an a la carte experience for $230 / 105min or can be paired with the La`ikū Waterless Pedicure as part of a special Mother's Day offer ($330 / 180min total). All guests who experience the La`ikū Facial or the complete La`ikū facial and waterless pedicure package will take home a mini at-home facial kit from Pure & True.

To schedule the La`ikū Facial or Waterless Pedicure directly, please call (808) 931-5322 or visit www.halekulani.com/spa\_halekulani/spa\_reservations\_request/ with 24-hour confirmations available, or e-mail at spa.halekulani@halekulani.com.

Additional green projects that have been implemented behind the scenes at Outrigger by the company's engineering, maintenance, housekeeping and projects teams include:

- |  |   |
|--|---|
| Recycling of cardboard, paper, linens and towels | A/C sensors on lanai doors                  |
| Switching to more efficient CFL and LED lighting | More efficient water and cooling-pumps      |
| Tinting windows                                  | Metal recycling                             |
| Water conservation with xeriscape gardening      | More efficient guest room appliances        |
| Timers on lights                                 | Sea-water swimming pools at some properties |
| Low-flow toilets                                 |   |

In 2009, Outrigger Enterprises Group was awarded the "Green Leader Award" from Reynolds Recycling for its efforts as a top recycling and sustainability leader in Hawaii's tourism industry.

"Hawaii's attractiveness as a visitor destination and the natural beauty we as residents enjoy every day rest heavily on keeping our environment pristine," Wallace added. "As a tourism industry leader, it is our responsibility not only to maintain, but to improve our Hawaii home for future generations. Outrigger is committed to continuing our current green initiatives and to find new ways to further expand our efforts to help achieve a more sustainable and greener Hawaii."

Sing The Body Wins Local Round of Hard Rock Rising!!!

Hard Rock's Global Battle of the Bands Competition Gives Honolulu's Own Sing The Body the Chance to Take the Stage at Hard Rock Calling 2012

12,000+ bands entered worldwide. More than 275,000 votes were cast. 841 bands competed. And now, the results are in and Honolulu's own Sing The Body has won the local round of Hard Rock Rising – the global battle of the bands! After battling it out with several of the area's top bands at Hard Rock Cafe Honolulu's, Sing The Body is one step closer to winning the chance of a lifetime – a spot on the bill at the 2012 Hard Rock Calling music festival in London's Hyde Park, featuring headlining performances by Bruce Springsteen & The E Street Band, Paul Simon and more to be announced! Now, it's up to you Honolulu to show your support and help these emerging artists live out their dreams!

Sing The Body will now be pitted against 85 other Hard Rock Cafe local winners from across the globe. These local winners will be narrowed down to the top ten bands worldwide via fan voting on Hard Rock Facebook pages. Beginning April 9, 2012 at 10am EST, fans can vote and download free tracks from bands of their choice at Hard Rock Honolulu's Facebook page. Once the global voting is complete and the top 10 are chosen, a panel of celebrity judges and music industry professionals, including Steven Van Zandt of the E Street Band, John Gourley, singer of Portugal. The Man, Scott Hutchison of Frightened Rabbit, Fyfe Dangerfield of Guillemots, Live Nation Vice President of Promotions Toby Leighton-Pope and Hard Rock International Chief Marketing Officer John Galloway, will select the top three winners.

The first place winner will be flown to London for the ultimate rock star treatment, including a spot on the bill at Hard Rock Calling 2012. Second and third prize winners will receive $5,000 and $2,500, respectively, in ReverbNation PROMOTE IT credits, a revolutionary tool that creates targeted, highly effective Facebook advertising campaigns for musicians and venues promoting songs, Facebook pages and concerts. For full rules and a list of participating locations visit www.hardrock.com.

Hawai'i Convention Center Welcomes Public to SEE-IT Exhibit

The SEE-IT Hawaii science, engineering and technology exhibit, which debuted at the Hawai'i Convention Center during the Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation (APEC) Leaders' Meeting in November 2011, will be open to the public at locations throughout the Center this year. Availability will be subject to events and open hours at the Center.

SEE-IT, which stands for Science, Engineering Exposition – Innovative Technologies, Hawai'i, features exhibits on topics including biomedicine, defense systems, IT development and renewable energy. It incorporates the work of 18 Hawai'i-based companies and organizations that have developed or use cutting-edge technologies and solutions. Exhibitors include online gaming company Avatar Reality Inc., with a virtual world entertainment system; Hawaiian Electric Company, with a look at the future of renewable energy technologies; and astronomy researchers such as the Pacific International Space Center for Exploration Systems (PISCES), the W.M. Keck Observatory, and University of Hawai'i's Institute for Astronomy.

The 12,000-square-foot exhibit will be open at the Center through 2012, and will be relocated to a permanent venue in 2013. The long-term goal of exhibit co-founders Henk Rogers, Galen Ho, and Dr. Peter Crouch is to create a permanent discovery exposition to motivate young people in Hawai'i to embrace careers in science, engineering, and technology. SEE-IT Hawaii, Inc. is a nonprofit organization founded to provide opportunities for people to connect with leading science, technology, engineering and mathematics (STEM)-based enterprises in Hawai'i.

"The SEE-IT exhibit was hugely popular during APEC, drawing many participants to learn about science and technology from Hawai'i's leaders and innovators," said Joe Davis, SMG general manager of the Hawai'i Convention Center. "We welcome the public to the Center throughout 2012 to take part in this premiere educational experience."

DFS GALLERIA WAIKIKI AND UH APDM PRESENT
Experience DFS...Be INSPIRED BY NATURE

DFS Galleria Waikiki and the University of Hawaii Apparel Product Design Merchandising (APDM) students present a collaboration event of beauty and fashion that is 'Inspired by Nature'. The event highlight will be a fashion show with creations by UH APDM student designers that emphasize the nature theme.

- Who: DFS Galleria Waikiki and UH APDM
- What: Spring 2012 Fashion Show featuring UH students' senior design collection
- When: Saturday, April 7, 2012, 2 pm to 10 pm
 2 pm - 2:30 pm Inspired by Nature overview
 2:30 pm - 4 pm Floral Styling Exhibition
 (students use fresh flowers to create a floral garment)
 4 pm - 6 pm Fashion & Beauty Styling Competition
 7 pm - 8 pm The Inspired by Nature Fashion Show
 8 pm - 10 pm Beauty After Dark Party
- Where: DFS Galleria Waikiki, Luxury Walk on the 1st floor
 (Corner of Kalakaua and Royal Hawaiian Avenues)
- Cost: Free and open to public.
 Complimentary 4 hour validated parking at Waikiki Trade Center with any DFS purchase.

"Inspired by Nature" is the DFS Spring 2012 theme for products and displays and it is a perfect fit with the UH APDM senior design collection fashion show. This season's UH collection will feature the use of natural fabrics donated by internationally renowned textile artist Akihiko Izukura. Akihiko Izukura is a prestigious textile artist and fashion designer from Kyoto, Japan. Izukura donated tubular shaped raw silk to the UH senior designers. Each student dyed their fabric using local natural dyes such as lipstick tree, red dirt and turmeric. The senior designers applied Izukura's philosophy of "zero waste" when constructing their garments.

DFS Galleria Waikiki, celebrating 50 years in Hawai'i this year, comprises three luxury shopping floors including Duty Free Shopping on Floor 3 and non-duty free shopping for all visitors and Hawai'i residents on Floors 1 and 2. On the 1st and 2nd floors, anyone can shop without worrying about the tax. We will not add tax on top of the price shown on the price tag. For more information please visit: www.dfsgalleria.com/en/hawaii.

April 15 – Del Beazley

Multiple Na Hoku Hanohano Award-winner Del “The Beaz” Beazley takes the Plaza Stage in April with an enormous talent in Hawaiian music. His use of acoustic string instruments, whether the guitar or the ukulele, never fails to please the crowd. He has played with well-known artists such as the late Israel Kamakawiwo‘ole and the Makaha Sons of Ni‘ihau, and also wrote Iz’s famed song “Hawaiian Supa Man.” Besides the Hawaiian Islands, Beazley has also toured across the West Coast and throughout Japan. Not only is he an accomplished singer, he is also one of Hawaii’s most talented composers and arrangers.

May 20 – Olomana

With a blend of traditional and contemporary music, the group Olomana has brought remarkable and unique sounds to Hawaii for over 35 years. Today, its members - Wally Suenaga, Jerry Santos, and Haunani Apoliona - share their love for music around the world. They’ve toured not only among the Hawaiian Islands, but also across the mainland U.S., Canada, Japan, and throughout the Pacific. The tunes of Olomana reveal political and social aspects of the islands, and also evoke the culture of Hawaii with “Ku‘u Home O Kahalu‘u,” “Come To Me Gently,” “Like a Seabird,” and many others. Join us for a not to be missed performance.
