20th Annual Filipino Fiesta PAGDIRIWANG AT PASASALAMAT – “Celebration and Thanks” Saturday, May 5, 2012

The 20th Annual Filipino Fiesta kicks off with a colorful parade starting from Fort DeRussy at 9:00 am and ends at Kapi’olani Park. The Fiesta, complete with food, cultural and business booths, a keiki village, and an all-day entertainment program promises to be a fun-filled family affair.

Our participating floats in the Parade will convey a cultural theme, depicting the various cultures from different regions of the Philippines. In addition, there will be street dancers, marching bands, and other cultural, community, professional, civic, and student marching groups.

The highlight of our Parade features GMA stars Richard Rama Gutierrez and King Jay R . They will also be performing during the Fiesta at Kapi’olani Park and will be greeting and signing autographs with their fans.

In the past years, the Fiesta at Kapi’olani Park has attracted tens of thousands of the local and tourist populations. The Fiesta showcases various aspects of Filipino culture - it has a regional cultural village, a Keiki village, food booths, and an all day entertainment program featuring local and Philippine-based artists.

The Fiesta's business and sponsor booths allow local entrepreneurs to showcase their products to the thousands of people who attend the festival. For Booth participants, we encourage you to participate in this colorful and popular event by purchasing the appropriate booth for your business, non-profit, or community organization. The magnitude of this event, the significant exposure it creates, and the various opportunities it provides for public contact, will certainly benefit your respective organizations.

We hope you will support and be part of us, as we bring to Hawaii the biggest event in the Filipino community. The annual event is organized by the Filipino Community Center in partnership with the Filipino Junior Chamber, United Filipino Council of Hawaii, Oahu Filipino Community Council, and the Congress of Visayan Organizations among others.

For more information about the Fiesta, feel free to contact Rose Churma at the FilCom Center (680-0451) or Randy Cortez at (808) 342-7685 or by email at girstmast@yahoo.com.

The Hawaii Academy Of Recording Arts (“Hara”) Presents
The 2012 Lifetime Achievement Awards
Saturday, May 5, 2012 • 10:30 A.M. • Ala Moana Hotel

The Aliis, Pua Almeida, Frank Delima, Wayne Harada, Alice Johnson, Kimo Kahoano, Moe Keale, The Lim Family, Ihilani Miller, Nalani Olds, Betty Loo Taylor and the Royal Hawaiian Band are the 2012 Honorees

The Hawaii Academy of Recording Arts (“HARA”) presents the 2012 Lifetime Achievement Awards (“LTA”) on May 5th, at the Ala Moana Hotel, and is proud to honor the following outstanding individuals and groups (in alphabetical order):

THE ALIIS

Since the 1960’s, The Aliis, in all forms, remain as legendary royalty in Hawaii’s musical history. Through the years, members included Rudy Aquino, Benny Chong, Joe Mundo, Manny Lagodlagod, Al Akana, Carlos Barboza, Bobby King, Danny Couch, and L.D. Cabral.

PUA ALMEIDA

Pua Almeida, hanai son and protégé of prolific composer John Kameaaloha Almeida, was a gifted guitarist, bassist, and steel guitarist, with an exceptional tenor voice. In Pua’s relatively brief life, he tirelessly performed his beloved Hawaiian music and recorded a musical legacy for future generations to enjoy.

FRANK DELIMA

Since imitating his Chinese babysitter’s Hakkah dialect at the age of 5, Frank Delima has kept the people of Hawaii laughing with his kind-spirited ethnic humor. In 1980, Delima created the Frank De Lima Student Enrichment Program, combining his comedic ability with his Catholic Youth Organization experience to work with children.

WAYNE HARADA

Countless successes got their first break in the column inches of Wayne Harada’s Showbiz columns. The Hawaii Academy of Recording Arts gratefully acknowledges the lifetime of contributions to Hawaii’s entertainment community by a man who stood at the center of it all for over four decades

ALICE JOHNSON

Many of the anthems that we sing in tribute to Maui island’s majestic mountains, verdant valleys, and brilliant beaches were composed by “Aunty Alice Johnson.” Known as the “Songbird of Maui,” her lilting soprano voice could soar above both combos and choirs, alike, as she shared her own special songs in praise of the Valley Isle of Maui.

KIMO KAHOANO

The consummate emcee, entertainer, TV and radio personality, and actor, James Halolena Kahoano, Jr. has led a distinguished and unique career that has spanned decades and the globe. In 1977, Krash Kealoha, Honolulu Skylark, and Kimo Kahoano began the Na Hoku Hanohano Awards as a radio promotion, and 35 years later, the “Hokus” continue to thrive.

MOE KEALE

A full-blooded native Hawaiian born on Niihau, Wilfred Nalani “Moe” Keale is revered as an integral part of the Hawaiian music renaissance and a key player in the rediscovery of Hawaiian values. He will be remembered as an entertainer, an actor, and a healer.

THE LIM FAMILY

The first version of The Lim Family consisted of Elmer Lim, Sr. (dad) on rhythm guitar, Mary Ann Neula Lim (mom) and Nanette (Nani) on ukulele, Elmer, Jr. (Sonny) on guitar, and Charmaine on bass. When Charmaine left for college, Lorna was recruited at age 13 to step in on bass. The Lim Family has excelled in every aspect of Hawaiian music and dance, and gained world acclaim, but continue to represent strong Hawaiian family values.

IHILANI MILLER

Ihilani Miller, "The Voice of the South Pacific," is remembered as one of Hawaii's most cherished "aunties" of Hawaiian music. The talented dancer, singer and composer performed on the mainland for several years, including appearances on "The Ed Sullivan Show" and "The Perry Como Show," and also performed in Europe and throughout Hawaii.

NALANI OLDS

Nalani-alua Yvonne Olds has distinguished herself as a singer, dancer, musician, composer, producer, director, actress, recording artist, and lecturer on Hawaiian history and culture. She has sung with Royal Hawaiian Band, performed at Carnegie Hall, and toured nationally and internationally.

BETTY LOO TAYLOR

Nicknamed "Lady Fingers," Betty Loo Taylor's parents recognized her gift at the age of 3. Decades and countless accomplishments and recognitions later, she continues to perform regularly in Waikiki on the weekends, and at special engagements. She has accompanied local and international jazz greats, such as Jimmy Borges, Ethel Azama, Melveen Leed, Azure McCall, Anita O'Day, Tony Bennett, Wynton Marsalis, Al Jarreau, and many more.

ROYAL HAWAIIAN BAND -2012 INDUSTRY AWARD HONOREES

Its history parallels the history of Hawaii itself, from an independent Monarchy, to a Republic, to an American territory, and finally, to the Fiftieth State of the United States of America. The history of the band and its bandmasters are the foundation of band music in Hawaii. Today, under the direction of Clark Bright, the Royal Hawaiian Band continues to be the only full-time municipal band in the United States.

Hilton Hawaiian Village Waikiki Beach Resort Offers the Perfect Mother's Day Getaway

Kama'aina rate and Rainbow Lanai Champagne Brunch Help Create an Ideal Staycation

Kama'aina families can truly make it a Mother's Day to remember at the Hilton Hawaiian Village Waikiki Beach Resort. The hotel is offering kama'aina room rates starting at $159 per night over Mother's Day weekend (May 11 through 13), so the entire family can plan on a mini-getaway on Friday and Saturday evening, then wake up Sunday morning to treat mom on her special day with a special champagne brunch at Rainbow Lanai.

Families can begin their staycation with a visit to either the Paradise Pool or the Duke Kahanamoku Lagoon, where they can stand-up paddle to their hearts' content. After sunset, enjoy beachfront dining at Tropics Bar & Grill during the fireworks at 7:45 p.m. then take in the sounds of Olomana at the Tapa Bar. In between then, families can stroll the property and see the eight South African penguins which are among the 30 species of wildlife at the 22-acre resort. Families are also invited to experience the newest family activity offered at the Hilton Hawaiian Village, and that is the Waikiki Ocean Club, a "playground of water fun" anchored off Waikiki. The activity attraction offers snorkeling, helmet diving, kayaking, trampoline, sunbathing, slides and diving platforms in addition to cocktails and food service. Guests are transported to the playground via watercraft departing from our Port Hilton every 15 minutes between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. For more information, call the hotel's activity desk.

On Mother's Day, Sunday, May 13, Rainbow Lanai Restaurant presents a lavish champagne brunch buffet that includes an assortment of cold foods, including a complement of salads, shrimp, sushi and poke. The carving station will feature Kona sea salt roasted prime rib, sage-roasted turkey breast and cinnamon and coffee-roasted leg of lamb. Warm dishes include breakfast favorites such as bacon, Portuguese sausage and chicken mango sausage, as well as individual poached egg, vegetable and kim chee fried rice, herb-brined roast chicken, hoisin pork ribs, and sautéed island catch. There'll be an egg and omelet station and a mouth-watering array of desserts such as strawberry tapioca, mango coconut cake, pineapple cheesecake, Waialua Estates' chocolate cake, white chocolate lemon mini cupcakes, warm mini malasadas, warm fruit cobbler and a chocolate fountain. The cost is $59 per adults and $24 for children under the age of 12. To make Mother's Day Brunch reservations, call Rainbow Lanai daily before 10 a.m. at (808) 949-4321. To make kama'aina room reservations, call the resort at (808) 949-4321, and ask for rate code "P3." Proof of Hawaii residency required.

The Hilton Hawaiian Village Waikiki Beach Resort is Waikiki's only true destination resort, offering the perfect mix of exceptional resort accommodations and classic hospitality on Waikiki's widest stretch of beach. The resort features more than 90 shops and 16 restaurants, lounges and bars; and every Friday evening, it sets the stage for a celebration of Hawaiian culture and entertainment ending in a spectacular fireworks show. Find us on Facebook at www.facebook.com/hiltonhawaiianvillage, or Twitter at @HawaiianVillage.

Flowers needed ...

If you have flowers in your yard, please consider donating them to the Waikiki Community Center on Friday, May 25th between 8:30-10:00 a.m.

Why? There are over 100 graves that never receive a lei on Memorial Day and WCC will sew leis with the flowers you bring in.

Mother's Day Brunch at Hyatt Regency Waikiki Beach

Executive Chef Sven Ullrich invites the public to place reservations now for a very special Mother's Day brunch in SHOR located on the third floor Diamond Head Tower of Hyatt Regency Waikiki Beach Resort and Spa, 2424 Kalakaua Avenue. Features include Prime Rib, Glazed Ham, Hand-Rolled Sushi from Japengo and much more. Service is from 11:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. and the cost is $75 per person (champagne for 21 and older) and $38 for children ages 6 to 12. Children five and under eat for free. Reservations are available at (808) 237-6145 or online at waikiki.hyatt.com.

"Hyatt Regency Waikiki hasn't offered brunch for a long time. This year we launched a new Easter brunch and it was a bigger success than we anticipated so we are really excited to do it again for Mother's Day. The favorites are back - prime rib, the Japengo Sushi chefs and SHOR's traditional Seafood Boil as well as many more delicious options," says Chef Ullrich.

The Mother's Day Brunch includes: ala'e salt crusted prime rib of beef, bourbon and brown sugar glazed ham, freshly prepared omelets, hand rolled sushi by Japengo sushi chefs, traditional seafood boil from SHOR, an array of mussels and crab legs, Banana Foster with Hawaiian Rums and vanilla ice cream. Other buffet items are available as well as a children's corner filled with keiki favorites from cheese pizza to mac and cheese. Other features include a rose for mom, a magician, an animal balloon professional and face painting.

Families ready for a Hawaii vacation of fun in the sun along Oahu's Waikiki Beach can stay and play comfortably at Outrigger Reef on the Beach with a new family getaway package. Available through September 30, 2012, the property's family package starts at $429 per night and includes a spacious suite with enchanting city and ocean views coupled with a souvenir bag filled with Hawaiian-style tasty treats and activities.

Sure to top the charts of all-time favorite family vacations, the Outrigger Reef on the Beach Family Package offers the ultimate combination of landscapes with a city view room adjoined to a partial ocean view room that can comfortably accommodate a family or group up to six. Additionally, Outrigger Reef on the Beach provides each family with a welcome gift valued at $50 including a Kani Ka Pila Grille logo bag brimming with an assortment of local goodies, such as a six-pack of juice, assorted local snacks and a family-friendly book, titled "Akua Hawaii" (Hawaiian Gods and their Stories) by Kimo Armitage.

"At Outrigger Reef on the Beach, we believe that vacations -- or any time spent with your family -- are once-in-a-lifetime opportunities to create lasting memories and unforgettable experiences," said Patsy Narimatsu, director of sales and marketing for Outrigger Waikiki on the Beach and Outrigger Reef on the Beach. "Ohana, or family in the Hawaiian language, is an important value in our culture and the Outrigger Reef on the Beach Family Package offers guests the perfect medley of a relaxing getaway and quality family time."

Outrigger Reef on the Beach makes getting away with the "fam" a truly relaxing experience with all-new and upgraded rooms, each featuring a 32-inch flat screen LCD television, enlarged bathrooms and full-size bathtubs, complimentary high-speed internet access and Nintendo capabilities for the entire family to enjoy.

Additionally, as one of Waikiki's most family-friendly properties, Outrigger Reef on the Beach offers a variety of on-site activities ranging from the traditional lei making and hula dancing classes to brief tutorials for families to learn to play the ukulele. For families ready to jump right into Hawaii's bright blue waters, surfing, stand up paddling and more can be arranged through the hotel's beach activities desk. The hotel also offers a Na Ali'i Walking Tour, educating keiki and adults on the local legends and history of the surrounding area of Waikiki. Families can also stroll down the street to Waikiki Beach Walk® to shop, dine and play at some of Hawaii's premier stores and restaurants. And at the end of a long day, the hotel's poolside restaurant, Kani Ka Pila Grille, offers a selection of local and established favorites for every taste bud and is host to live nightly Hawaiian music from renowned and up-and-coming artists.

"What truly sets Outrigger Reef on the Beach apart is not just the accommodations -- which gives families the space to spread out while remaining close to one another -- but the added amenities and perfect location, which puts everyone close to all the action and experiences that Waikiki has to offer," added Narimatsu.

Hotel reservations can be made by contacting the toll free number 1-800-OUTRIGGER (1-800-688-7444) within the United States, Guam and Canada. Or, visit www.outriggerreef.com or e-mail bf.orf@outrigger.com.

Hawaiian Airlines Appoints Louis Saint-Cyr Vice President of Customer Services

Hawaiian Airlines today announced the appointment of Louis Saint-Cyr to the position of vice president of customer services.

Saint-Cyr has served as Hawaiian's vice president of inflight services since May 2004. In his new role, Saint-Cyr has management responsibility for the company's largest employee group and the growth of Hawaiian's airport operations system-wide.

"Louis' innovative leadership has elevated the quality of our in-flight service and improved the department's efficiency and communication," said Charles Nardello, Hawaiian's senior vice president of operations. "As Hawaiian continues to grow, those same skills are going to help us improve the airport experience for our customers."

Prior to joining Hawaiian, Saint-Cyr held senior-level positions managing various aspects of inflight services for Air Canada from 1998-2004.

A native of Ottawa, Saint-Cyr graduated from the University of Concordia with a Bachelor of Arts degree in political science, before earning a Masters of Science degree in industrial relations from the University of Quebec.

Hawaii Prince Hotel Waikiki Hires Eriko Tsuchida Ngo as Account Executive Asia-Pacific Sales

The Hawaii Prince Hotel Waikiki and Golf Club announced the appointment of Eriko Tsuchida Ngo as account executive Asia-Pacific sales.

In her new position, she will assist the Asia Pacific director of sales and sales managers in developing, managing and servicing the hotel's bookings from the Japanese, Chinese and Korean markets.

Prior to joining the Hawaii Prince Hotel Waikiki, Tsuchida Ngo was a Japanese guest concierge at Outrigger Reef on the Beach. Before that she was a front desk employee with Embassy Suites Waikiki Beachwalk.

Tsuchida Ngo attended Hawaii Mission Academy and is fluent in Japanese. In 2006, she graduated from the University of Hawaii with a Bachelor of Science degree.

Located at the entrance to Waikiki, the 33-story Hawaii Prince Hotel Waikiki and Golf Club offers guests oceanfront accommodations in 521 rooms and 57 luxury suites, along with world-class service at one of Oahu's most desirable and convenient locations.

Aqua Hotels & Resorts announces sales & marketing appointments

Aqua Hotels & Resorts (www.aquaresorts.com) is pleased to announce recent sales and marketing appointments.

“As our company continues to grow, we’re adding smart, enthusiastic individuals to the team while promoting deserving team members into new positions,” said Elizabeth Churchill, Aqua’s Sr. VP Sales & Marketing. “It’s an exciting time for Aqua and for all of us who have been fortunate enough to experience Aqua’s incredible growth over the last several years.”

John Dailey, Director of Sales – Domestic & International

Most recently, John was Director of Sales & Marketing for Hilo Hattie’s, responsible for overseeing all market segments. He has over fifteen years of sales experience which includes management positions at Outrigger Hotels, Kona Surf and Pacific Beach Hotel.

Born and raised in Okinawa, John was educated at the University of Maryland Asia Pacific and is bi-lingual in English and Japanese. He is located at the Home Office and can be reached at jdailey@aquaresorts.com.

Christopher Ching, Marketing Coordinator – Offline Marketing

Chris assists and coordinates traditional offline marketing initiatives including public relations, print advertising, promotions, sponsorships and partnerships.

An Iolani School graduate, Chris received his B.S. in Business Administration from the University of Southern California, with a concentration in Marketing (advertising & promotions strategy, product & brand management). He can be reached cching@aquaresorts.com.

Lacianne Terry, Contract Sales Manager

In this position, Laci is responsible for overseeing all wholesale and group contracting within Aqua as well as providing additional sales support for Aqua’s Home Office.

Laci comes to Aqua from the Pacific Beach Hotel where she was Sales Manager for the Domestic and International markets. She also worked in the Contracting department for Hilton Hotels Corporation and in the Honolulu office for Fun Sun Vacations (Canadian wholesaler).

Laci graduated from the University of Hawaii at Manoa with a B.B.A in Business Management with a minor in Speech Communications. She can be reached at lterry@aquaresorts.com.

Angela Byun, Director of Reservations

Angela has been promoted to Director of Reservations for Aqua’s central reservations department. She has done an incredible job working with her team to not only provide prompt and courteous service to prospective guests, but increase revenue to Aqua overall. Angela continues to oversee the entire department as well as provide reservations training to front desk and reservation staff at all Aqua properties.

Most recently, Angela was Reservations Manager. Prior to joining Aqua, Angela was Front Office Manager and Director of Housekeeping at Four Seasons Resort Lanai at Manele Bay. She has also held management positions at the Four Seasons Hotel New York and Four Seasons Resort Hualalai.

Angela received her B.S. in Travel Industry Management from the University of Hawaii. She can be reached at abyun@aquaresorts.com.

American Association of Orthodontists 112th-Annual Session is Largest of the Year for the Hawai'i Convention Center, Drawing 14,500 Attendees

The American Association of Orthodontists (AAO) will hold its 112th Annual Session at the Hawai'i Convention Center from May 4-8, 2012. It is the Center's largest meeting of the year with 14,500 attendees, including post-conference educational meetings on Oahu, Maui and Kauai. The AAO last held its annual conference in Hawai'i in 2003.

This premier gathering of orthodontists is expected to draw 850 international attendees representing more than 65 countries, topping international turnout at last year's annual conference in Chicago. More than 400 participants are expected from Pacific Rim countries, including China, Chile, Hong Kong, Japan, Mexico, South Korea, and Taiwan. The conference is expected to generate more than $68 million in state revenue, with the Center's hotel partners benefiting from 116,600 room nights.

"It is a pleasure to host our Annual Session in Hawai'i – the Aloha Spirit, facilities and services, and natural beauty are unbeatable," said Michael Rogers, DDS, AAO president. "This year's meeting will feature a robust lineup of educational events spanning three islands, as well as a special schedule that allows plenty of time for our members to experience the wonderful activities that Hawai'i has to offer."

The conference will feature more than 160 lectures from world-class experts, who will address research and clinical topics related to today's top orthodontic treatment trends, dilemmas, technologies and scientific advances. Sessions will examine a variety of subjects, such as innovative strides being made in orthodontic technology and the promotion of orthodontists as uniquely qualified specialists and lifelong partners in overall body health and beauty.

"It is wonderful to welcome the American Association of Orthodontists back to the Hawai'i Convention Center for the second time in less than 10 years," said Joe Davis, SMG general manager of the Hawai'i Convention Center. "This meeting showcases the strength of Hawai'i as an ideal location for major international and medical gatherings, as well as events that have a direct impact on the neighbor islands."

AAO members will also have the opportunity to visit state-of-the-art displays by more than 300 companies offering orthodontic products and services at the Annual Session Exhibit Hall. In addition, members will have a chance to give back to Hawai'i communities via a "Virtual Food Bank," where they can donate to the Hawai'i Food Bank through a computer kiosk at the Center.

"The HTA is extremely pleased to welcome back the American Association of Orthodontists (AAO), which has chosen to return to Hawai'i and the Hawai'i Convention Center for its 112th Annual Session," said Mike McCartney, president and CEO of the Hawai'i Tourism Authority. "The Annual Session and post-conference educational meetings on O'ahu, Maui and Kaua'i will give attendees and their families more opportunities to experience the beauty of our islands, rich Hawaiian culture and aloha spirit of our people. Conferences such as the AAO generate invaluable worldwide exposure for Hawai'i, and the additional events on various islands further distribute the benefits of these important meetings throughout the state."

Founded in 1900, the American Association of Orthodontists (AAO) is the world's oldest and largest dental specialty organization. It represents more than 17,000 members throughout the United States, Canada and abroad. Approximately 95 percent of all practicing orthodontists in the U.S. are members of the AAO. Hawaiian's Seventh New A330 – Heiheionakeiki – Joins the Fleet

Hawaiian Airlines today welcomed its seventh new Airbus A330-200 to its fleet, continuing a strategic growth plan that will have 22 of the new wide-body aircraft in operation by 2015.

The new A330 was flown nonstop from the Airbus factory in Toulouse, France, to Los Angeles this past Friday, where it underwent final preparations over the weekend before making its inaugural commercial flight today to Honolulu as Hawaiian Flight #3 carrying 245 passengers.

Hawaiian plans to use the 294-seat A330 primarily for its daily nonstop service between Sydney and Honolulu, with the transition to the larger aircraft from the 264-seat Boeing 767-300ER adding nearly 11,000 more air seats annually to the route.

Hawaiian has named its latest A330 Heiheionakeiki, the Hawaiian name to describe the “Belt and Sword of Orion” constellation. All of Hawaiian's new A330s are named for a constellation or star used by the ancient Polynesians for celestial navigation when making their voyages across the Pacific to Hawaii.

Heiheionakeiki is the second of four new A330s to join Hawaiian's fleet this year, with the remaining two A330s being delivered in May and June, which will bring the company total to nine. Hawaiian is taking delivery of 13 new A330s between 2013 and 2015.

The new A330s are more fuel-efficient and have a longer operating range than the B767s, giving Hawaiian the option to open new nonstop routes between Hawaii and points throughout North America and eastern Asia.

In addition, all of Hawaiian's wide-body, twin-aisle A330s offer customer amenities that include a spacious interior highlighted by increased legroom, and state-of-the-art, on-demand entertainment system with high-resolution LCD touch-screen monitor in each seatback.

CHAMPION'S STEAK & SEAFOOD TO DEBUT AT ROYAL HAWAIIAN CENTER

Presenting high-quality foods, "plate lunch" style at a reasonable price

Waikīkī – Champion's Steak & Seafood is scheduled to open its first eatery on Thursday, May 3rd at Royal Hawaiian Center's Pā'ina Lānai™, located on level 2 of Building B. Embracing Hawai'i's love for the "plate lunch," high-quality cuts of steak, seafood and chicken, will be carefully prepared and offered at affordable prices beginning at $5.50 for a half-sized plate and $7.50 for a full plate.

"With the addition of Champion's Steak & Seafood, our Pā'ina Lānai food court offers a diverse selection of ten great casual dining eateries," said Marleen 'Ākau, general manager of Royal Hawaiian Center. "Their local-style cuisine features 'ono plate lunch favorites and quality ingredients."

The menu revolves around four main items – steak, shrimp, fish and chicken. Champion's Steak, an 8-ounce Angus New York cut, will be their signature entrée for $11.50. Local favorites include miso chicken, grilled fish, garlic shrimp, and ahi poke. Combinations will be available starting at $9.00 for a half-sized plate and $15.00 for a full plate. All entrees include rice and tossed salad.

"We love being in the heart of Waikīkī at Royal Hawaiian Center," said Owner Makoto Kinoshita. "Our chef and staff members are devoted to serving visitors and kama'āina alike with great food that makes everyone happy."

Champion's Steak & Seafood will be open daily from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. For more information call (808) 921-0011.

Royal Hawaiian Center is home to ten anchor restaurants as well as ten eateries at Pā'ina Lānai.

Honolulu, HI – The Hawai'i Academy of Recording Arts (“HARA”) is proud to announce that Ala Moana Hotel – The Kama'aina Favorite, is “The Official Hotel of the 35th Annual Nā Hōkū Hanohano Awards and Music Festival,” happening May 25-27, 2012, at the Hawai'i Convention Center. The Nā Hōkū Hanohano Awards (“Hokus”) is the culminating event of the month-long Mele Mei 2012, celebrating the unique music of Hawai'i.

The celebration will continue as the Ala Moana Hotel's Pakele Lounge hosts the Hokus After-Party on May 27th, from 10 p.m.~midnight, immediately following the 35th Annual Nā Hōkū Hanohano Awards.

Ala Moana Hotel is extending special Nā Hōkū Hanohano room rates starting at $109 in the Kona Tower for anyone who is attending the Hokus or Festival, making the hotel not only convenient, but also an excellent deal. To qualify for the rates, available May 23-30, 2012, guests must simply show their I.D. badge, ticket or receipt for any of the events to the front desk before checking out. Room rates are nightly for single/double occupancy, plus tax. Rooms are subject to availability.

“Ala Moana Hotel is proud to be the official hotel sponsor of this prestigious event,” said Marty Milan, Director of Sales and Marketing for the hotel. “The staff is excited and looking forward to extending our hospitality to honorees and the many fans, friends and 'ohana who will stay with us and extend their support. I hope they don't mind if we're 'starstruck'."

"We are extremely honored and grateful to have the Ala Moana Hotel, once again, as a valued partner of the Nā Hōkū Hanohano Music Festival and Awards," said Ku'uiipo Kumukahi, HARA president. "We all love staying there – not only for its convenient location, but also for its well-appointed rooms and the gracious hospitality of its staff."

Ala Moana Hotel was the original home of the Nā Hōkū Hanohano Awards in 1978. The big winners that year were Melveen Leed and Cecilio & Kapono. The Brothers Cazimero, Palani Vaughan and The King's Own, and Herb Ohta were also winners. Eventually, the Hokus grew too large for the Ala Moana Hotel. Its current home is the 35,000 square foot Kalākaua Ballroom at the Hawai'i Convention Center, across the street from the hotel. The Ala Moana Hotel enjoys this renewed relationship with the Hokus – a kind of "homecoming," returning to its roots.

ABOUT ALA MOANA HOTEL

Ala Moana Hotel – The Kama'āina Favorite, renowned for its exceptional island hospitality, presents guests with a host of impressive amenities and services. The upscale property offers a collection of diverse in-house dining options, contemporary meeting and banquet facilities, a relaxing lounge and energetic nightclub, as well as an expansive pool deck, sauna and fitness center. Centrally located, Ala Moana Hotel is nearby famous Waikīkī Beach, adjacent to Ala Moana Center, the largest open-air mall in America, across from the Hawai'i Convention Center and a short stroll to picturesque Ala Moana Beach Park.

For more information on Ala Moana Hotel, please visit www.alamoanahotel.com. Festival participants must call (808) 955-4811 to get the special Nā Hōkū Hanohano rates - just ask for the "Hokus" rates. These rates will be honored May 23-30, 2012, only.

ABOUT NĀ HŌKŪ HANOHANO AWARDS & MUSIC FESTIVAL

Sponsored by Ala Moana Hotel, the Hawai'i Tourism Authority (HTA), the Hawai'i Academy of Recording Arts (HARA), and other partners, this music festival is part of Mele Mei 2012, and offers the public a unique chance to experience a rich cultural interchange, making the connections between music, our culture, and the spirit of aloha, through interesting and unique workshops, demonstrations, performances and exhibitions.

The 35th Annual Nā Hōkū Hanohano Awards will be held on Sunday, May 27, 2012, in the Kalākaua Ballroom at the Hawai'i Convention Center, and will be telecast live on KFVE, and live-streamed on www.k5thometeam.com. Tickets are $150 General Admission, $135 Kama'āina, and $125 for HARA members.

For Nā Hōkū Hanohano event and ticket information, please:

- Go to www.nahokumusicfestival.com
- Call HARA at (808) 593-9424
- E-mail info@nahokumusicfestival.com

Holiday Inn Waikiki Beachcomber Resort Wins Hawaii Green Business Award

HONOLULU, WAIKIKI - Dean Nakasone, general manager of Holiday Inn Waikiki Beachcomber Resort is proud to announce that the resort is a recipient of the 2012 Hawaii Green Business Award presented by Hawaii's Governor Neil Abercrombie and the state of Hawaii.

Holiday Inn Waikiki Beachcomber Resort was commended for its continued efforts to protect Hawaii's pristine environment by committing to conserving water, energy, and other resources. Judges were highly impressed with the meaningful changes undertaken by the hotel that have resulted in reducing the property's energy consumption by 4,000 kWh per day and saving 624,267 gallons of water annually through improved cooling tower operations.

"It is such a great honor for Holiday Inn Waikiki Beachcomber Resort to receive the prestigious Hawaii Green Business Award," says Dean Nakasone. "Our strong
