Eight Inc. wins Grand Award for 280 Beach Walk The Building Industry Association - Hawai'i 2010 Awards

Architecture and design firm, Eight Inc. was presented a Grand Award by the Building Industry Association, Hawai'i for 280 Beach Walk in Waikiki. The building won in the New Commercial projects over 15,001 square feet category.

The 280 Beach Walk retail complex continues the redevelopment trend that defines a key gateway experience for Waikiki, Honolulu's most active pedestrian district.

280 Beach Walk adds over 34,000 square feet of high-end lifestyle retail space to Waikiki's Kalakaua Avenue. The architecture of the building is created with thoughtful attention to hierarchy, detail, material and color in a manner that allows the project to naturally derive its identity from the context of the project site. Pedestrians are greeted by a building expression composed of a series of two-story storefronts each accentuated by a dramatic glazed-tile roof form in a way that recalls the street-oriented building traditions of Hawai'i's earliest places of commerce.

2010 Pan-Pacific Festival Celebrating Cultural Exchange in Hawai'i

The Pan-Pacific Festival, one of the oldest intercultural festivals will once again be promoting relationships between Hawai'i and the Pan-Pacific region.

From June 11 - 13, a roster of very notable Hawaiian entertainers along with thousands of musicians, artists and dancers from Pacific Rim countries come to the island of O'ahu, Hawai'i, to present a weekend showcase of entertainment, celebration of drums, dance, pageantry, parades, music, traditions and food. Since its inception, the mission of the Pan-Pacific Festival has been to showcase cultural diversity and overcome language and geographic barriers through shared interests. Most events are free.

The following are highlights of the Pan-Pacific Festival on O'ahu:

Pan-Pacific Ho'olaule'a - The highlight of the Festival! On Friday, June 11, 7:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m., Waikiki's famous main street, Kalākaua Avenue, will be closed to cars and packed with pedestrians for this ho'olaule'a (street party). There will be nine stages filled with cultural performances including hula, traditional Japanese dance and taiko drummers. In addition, food booths, arts and crafts and multi-cultural exhibits will make this an evening to remember.

Pan-Pacific Parade - On Sunday, June 13, 5:00 p.m. visitors and kama'aina (residents) will line Kalākaua Avenue to enjoy this colorful parade. An eclectic mix of performers, taiko drummers, modern and traditional dancers and colorful floats will march through Waikiki at sunset. There will be a variety of musical entertainment from Japan and the mainland U.S. along with local ethnic groups participating in the parade as well.

Weekend festivities will also include a performing arts showcase of cultural demonstrations from the Pan-Pacific region. For more information and a detailed schedule of events please visit www.pan-pacific-festival.com. The 31st Annual Pan-Pacific Festival is sponsored in part by the Hawai'i Tourism Authority.

Congratulations!

To the 5000+ O'ahu walkers who participated in the 32nd annual Visitor Industry Charity Walk and helped the Hawaii Hotel and Lodging Assn. raise a grand total of $901,029 for local charities.

Hilton Hawaiian Village Beach Resort & Spa to feature three Na Hoku Hanohano Award Winners during Na Hoku o Hawai'i Music Festival Weekend

The Hilton Hawaiian Village Beach Resort & Spa, long known for featuring the most live Hawaiian music in Waikiki on any given day, is featuring three acts during the first ever Na Hoku o Hawaii Music Festival, May 27-30. The event will feature four days of Hawaiian music in Waikiki and culminate with the 2010 Na Hoku Hanohano Awards on Sunday, May 30. The three Na Hoku award-winning artists who are scheduled to perform at the resort during the weekend include Henry Kaponu, Cecilio Rodriguez and Jerry Santos of Olomana.

Henry Kaponu, one half of what is arguably the top singing duo out of Hawaii, will debut his new show, "The Wild Hawaiian Experience" at the Hilton Hawaiian Village's Super Pool on Saturday, May 29 at 7:30 p.m. Meanwhile, Kaponu's former singing partner Cecilio Rodriguez, continues his stint at the Hilton Hawaiian Village with performances scheduled on Thursday and Friday, May 27 and 28 at Tropics Bar & Grill. On Thursday, he performs from 5 to 8 p.m.; and on Friday, he plays from 8 to 10:30 p.m. In the 1970s, he and Kaponu performed as Cecilio & Kaponu, recording three albums with Columbia Records: Cecilio & Kaponu, Elua and The Nightmusic, all of which became top-selling albums. Their third album alone garnered five of the prestigious Na Hoku Hanohano Awards.

Jerry Santos of Olomana, and his friends including Haunani Apoliona, continues to wow audiences each Friday and Saturday evening at the resort's Tapa Bar between 8 and 11 p.m. Santos is now in his 17th year performing at the Hilton Hawaiian Village. Along with Apoliona and others, they formed Olomana, known for their classic Hawaiian music that blends traditional and contemporary sounds.

Hilton's daily roster of performers includes groups such as Beach 5, Acoustik Playground and Piranha Brothers. For more information about these performances, call the resort at (808) 949-4321.

Hyatt Regency Waikiki Beach Resort and Spa Features Wild Oak in Summer Signature Wine Series

The wine from Sonoma County winery promises to be a favorite

Hyatt Regency Waikiki Beach Resort and Spa, located at 2424 Kalakaua Avenue announces the Summer Signature Wine Series featuring Wild Oak wines from St. Francis Winery and Vineyards. The varietals include Wild Oak Chardonnay ($12), Wild Oak Merlot ($16), and Wild Oak Cabernet ($18); all are available at Ciao Mein and The Colony Restaurants. Reservations are available at (808) 237-6140.

From one paradise to another, the Wild Oak wines bring to Hawaii the product of some of California's finest soil and climate. The series offers an opportunity to enjoy the greatness of the floral overtones and tropical fruit of a Chardonnay; a fusion of cherry, peppermint and black fruit of the Merlot; and, an aromatic firmly structured Cabernet.

"We are fond of our signature wine series," says Vince Brunetti, director of Food and Beverage at Hyatt Regency Waikiki Beach Resort and Spa. "Each quarter we are able to introduce our guests to specialty wines from different regions, and because these are exclusive opportunities the overall experience is truly special."

Ciao Mein Restaurant holds an AAA Four Diamond rating and features a creative fusion of Italian and Chinese cuisine. The restaurant is open nightly from 6 to 10 p.m. One of Waikiki's best-kept secrets, The Colony Restaurant, offers sushi, steak and seafood nightly from 6 to 10 p.m. Cocktails are available at The Colony Lounge each night beginning at 5:30 p.m. For more information, please visit www.waikiki.hyatt.com.

New Menu at The Colony Restaurant

Menu features a new spicy selection and mix of Hawaiian flavors

Hyatt Regency Waikiki Beach Resort and Spa, located at 2424 Kalakaua Avenue, invites the public to experience the new menu at The Colony Restaurant where casual elegance, incredible flavors, and exceptional service combine for a night of fine dining at local prices. The menu includes an individualized seasoning section as well as dishes infused with Hawaiian flavors.

Anyone looking for a way to customize their own dinner will savor the new list of seasoning selections available for all Kiawe Grill menu items. Anything on the menu can have a personalized seasoning even the Prime New York Strip Steak with braised shallots, Berkshire Pork Chop with cranberry hollandaise, Chicken Breast and Thigh with organic honey and crushed macadamia nuts, or Pulehu Mahi Mahi grilled with wasabi beurre blanc. Seasoning selections include: Hawaiian Red Alaea, Espresso/Kosher Salt, Lemon Pepper, Fleur de Sel, Cajun Blackening, and Montreal Style.

“We created a menu that includes a combination of seasonings that will give our kiawe grill entrees distinctive flavors. With the new list of spices our guests get to customize their own dinner which can turn a best-selling item like the New York Steak into a succulent piece of prime cut meat with spicy, earthy, salty, or even tropical undertones,” says Jeff Wind, executive chef at Hyatt Regency Waikiki Beach Resort and Spa.

The new menu contains the popular Torched Sushi and Sushi Menu

Hawaiian inspiration is also evident with the new menu. From Escargot in Moloka'i herb butter sauce, Hot Rock Ahi or Diver Scallops there is a hint of Hawaiian flavor in every bite. Also adding to the favorites are the new shot glass desserts featuring Mango Mousse, Pineapple Cheesecake, and classics like Tiramisu, Crème Caramel, and Chocolate Peanut Butter.

The Colony Restaurant is open nightly from 6 to 10 p.m. The Colony Lounge opens at 5:30 p.m. and features a drink menu special for $7 'til 7:00 p.m. The restaurant is a recently selected Diner's Choice Winner from OpenTable.com. To make a reservation, please call (808) 237-6140 or visit online at www.waikiki.hyatt.com.

Hawaiian Diacritical Marks

Waikīkī Improvement Association recognizes the use of diacritical marks (i.e., glottal stop (ʻ), macron (ā) in place names of Hawai'i, such as Waikīkī and Kalākaua Avenue and will include them whenever possible. We also respect the individual use (or not) of these markings for names of organizations and businesses.

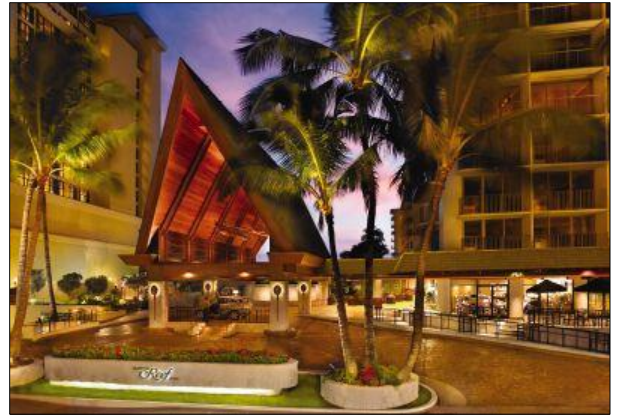

There will also be times when we may not have a chance to add or change the markings in all of the articles submitted and when that happens, e kala mai.

Family Fun for Kama‘āina at Outrigger Reef on the Beach

With family-sized suites, free cultural activities and poolside movies, Outrigger Reef on the Beach caters to kids from one to 100

Teeming with kid-friendly amenities, Outrigger Reef on the Beach invites kama‘āina families to come take advantage of the added values now available on property, including free poolside movies, complimentary cultural activities and top-notch entertainment. The newly upgraded suites, starting at just $239 per night, range from one to four bedrooms and offer ample space for families of all sizes to enjoy a staycation in style.

“Family vacations are all about relaxing and having a great time with your loved ones, which is why we’re so proud to offer activities for kids and parents of all ages,” said Patsy Narimatsu, director of sales and marketing for Outrigger Reef on the Beach. “Plus, our spacious suites are the perfect solution to keeping the family close, while retaining maximum comfort and privacy.”

Outrigger Reef on the Beach boasts 42 family-friendly suites, the largest of which has four bedrooms and can accommodate up to 12 people comfortably. Hawai‘i residents can fully unwind in the upgraded suites with stylish décor that reflects the hotel’s natural environs, full-size bathtubs, spacious vanities and 32-inch flat screen LCD televisions. All rooms are equipped with Nintendo capabilities, for use at an additional charge, adding to the home-away-from-home appeal.

As one of the state’s foremost supporters of Hawaiian culture, Outrigger Reef on the Beach offers a variety of on-site activities ranging from the traditional art of lei making and hula dancing to playing the ukulele. The hotel even offers a weekly Na Ali‘i Walking Tour, educating children and adults alike on the local legends and history of the surrounding area.

The lobby sitting area has children’s books available for the hotel’s youngest keiki who are sure to enjoy island versions of familiar classics like Snow White and the Seven Menehune by Donivee Laird and Carol Johnson, and The Musubi Man by Sandi Takayama and Pat Hall. There’s also a new museum quality exhibit currently on display in the lobby that highlights the Hawaiian traditions of canoe building and voyaging. At the end of the day, the poolside Kani Ka Pila Grille is home to nightly live Hawaiian music from renowned and up-and-coming artists.

Recently added to the hotel’s schedule of summer activities is an all-star line up of Hawai‘i-themed films, which will be shown poolside on a large, outdoor screen. Families can relax on comfortable lounge chairs under the starry sky, as they watch movies featuring the island’s exotic backdrop, including “Blue Crush” on June 12, “50 First Dates” on July 10, “Blue Hawaii” on August 7, and “The Ride” on August 28. With the room so close, it’s easy to get the whole family together at once.

“Our free poolside movies are a fun way to spend time with family, while enjoying Hawai‘i’s tropical climate,” said Narimatsu. “We want to make it easy for families to find things to do together, without the hassle of having to pack up and leave the property.”

Ideally situated between famed Waikīkī Beach and the entertainment center of Waikīkī, the newly revamped Outrigger Reef on the Beach is a stunning oceanfront haven of elegance, comfort, gracious hospitality, and unparalleled commitment to Hawaiian culture. Guests staying at Outrigger Reef on the Beach can enjoy its Fee Free Escape program, offering an array of complimentary amenities including free high-speed Internet access, free local and long-distance domestic telephone calls to the U.S. Mainland and Canada, daily newspaper, use of the fitness center (open 24 hours) and various cultural activities and much more. Kama‘āina guests can also take advantage of 50 percent off of valet parking valid through August 31, 2010.

Hotel reservations can be made by contacting your preferred travel agent or call toll free 1-800-OUTRIGGER (1-800-688-7444) within the United States, Guam and Canada. Elsewhere call direct to 303-369-7777 (long distance charges apply). Or, visit www.outriggerreef.com or e-mail reservations@outrigger.com.

HTH Corporation appoints Grayce McCullough as Corporate Director of Public Relations and Communications

HTH Corporation announces the appointment of Grayce McCullough as Corporate Director of Public Relations and Communications reporting to HTH Corporation President John Hayashi. McCullough had been Senior Corporate Director of Sales and Marcom for all HTH corporate properties. She will be responsible for all public relations and corporate communications for The Pacific Beach Hotel, The Pagoda Hotel and all other HTH properties and holdings.

"Grayce achieved marketing and sales success for the past 11 years with our company as well as providing her counsel and experience with the hospitality industry and trade organizations worldwide," said John Hayashi, President, HTH Corporation. "This change strengthens our efforts in a critical area that is vital to our continued success."
