

Show Aloha Spirit by Purchasing and Wearing an Aloha Festivals Ribbon

Ribbon sales support Hawai'i's premier kama'aina festival; discounts at a variety of O'ahu hotels and businesses

Aloha Festivals, Hawai'i's premier kama'aina festival, celebrating our island lifestyle, has begun and it is once again time for residents to show their Aloha Spirit by purchasing an Aloha Festivals ribbon, available now at participating retailers. A ribbon purchase supports the state's longest-running Hawaiian cultural celebration by defraying the cost of the free events offered to the general public. Ribbon purchasers may also enter into a sweepstakes that gives them a chance to win a Hawaiian Airlines round trip for two to Las Vegas and other fabulous prizes. In addition, Aloha Festivals has partnered with Oahu hotels and businesses to grant discounts to customers who show their support by wearing their 2010 ribbon.

2010 Waikiki Hoolaulea

Simply Wood Studios Brings Fine Wood Crafts to Royal Hawaiian Center

Royal Hawaiian Center welcomes Simply Wood Studios, the newest addition to the Center's diverse mix of retail stores. Simply Wood Studios, a locally owned business specializing in hand-crafted wood items, opened on September 2 at the Royal Grove.

Simply Wood Studios focuses on objects made from wood and they offer a variety of merchandise ranging from pens, boxes, bowls and furniture to jewelry, sculptures and other pieces of art. The store strives to support local artists as well as artists from around the world.

"We take pride in the exceptional products and service that we offer our customers," said Aaron Lau, owner of Simply Wood Studios. "Our goal is to increase interest for high-quality wood arts and its artists."

Simply Wood Studios' location will serve not only as a retail store but also as a studio for hosting demonstrations and functions related to the art of woodwork.

"We are thrilled about the opening of Simply Wood Studios here at Royal Hawaiian Center," said Marleen Akau, general manager of Royal Hawaiian Center. "Their focus on wood-crafted items created by artists from Hawaii and around the world will provide visitors with a selection of merchandise that is unique and different from other retailers on Oahu."

To learn more, visit SimplyWoodStudios.com or call (808) 561-8813. The store will be open from 10:00 a.m. to 10:00 p.m. daily. For details about Center restaurants and shops, visit www.RoyalHawaiianCenter.com or call Lei Ohu Guest Services at (808) 922-2299.

FREE PARKING: offer valid through January 31, 2011 Royal Hawaiian Center has the largest garage in the heart of Waikiki with 10 levels of parking and more than 600 stalls located adjacent to the Sheraton Waikiki Hotel. The Center's free parking promotion offers 3 hours of free parking with any restaurant validation and 2 hours free parking with any food court validation. Five hours of parking is $5 when validated at Royal Hawaiian Theater. LEVEL 4 validations apply for $5 parking after 10 p.m. Dining and entertainment validations can be combined with retail validations of $2 for 2 hours. ## Bowling for Business Equals a Lucky Strike for Potential Meetings

After a successful American Society of Association Executives (ASAE) Tradeshow and Convention held in August in Los Angeles, the Hawai'i Convention Center partnered with the Toronto Convention and Visitors Bureau to host a celebratory client bowling event at Lucky Strike Lanes in the new L.A. Live District of Los Angeles where more than 100 clients participated.

The trade show and client event generated great interest, which could eventually lead to more than 10 city-wide conventions and possibly 20 single property conferences.

Hawaiian Diacritical Marks

Waikīkī Improvement Association recognizes the use of diacritical marks (i.e., glottal stop (ʻ), macron (ā) in place names of Hawai'i, such as Waikīkī and Kalākaua Avenue and will include them whenever possible. We also respect the individual use (or not) of these markings for names of organizations and businesses.

There will also be times when we may not have a chance to add or change the markings in all of the articles submitted and when that happens, e kala mai.

Traveling Professionals Can Get Down to Business with the Outrigger Luana Waikīkī

Outrigger Luana Waikiki takes the stress out of a business trip with a state-of-the-art business center and free wireless internet throughout the property

The Outrigger Luana Waikiki makes business a pleasure for travelers by providing first-class support for working professionals. With a state-of-the-art business center and free wireless internet throughout the property, travelers on-the-go can stay connected as they work their way through paradise. With affordable rates starting at just $99 per night through December 21, 2010, the Outrigger Luana Waikiki is a great choice for business guests.

“Traveling for work is hectic, but the Outrigger Luana Waikiki makes it feel like paradise, catering to guest’s business needs so they can stay focused on their big meeting or conference,” said Teri Orton “With the Outrigger Luana Waikiki’s great amenities and comfortable accommodations, in a quiet park setting, guests will be well-rested and ready to go for each big day of their trip.”

The Outrigger Luana Waikiki’s 24-hour business center provides working professionals around-the-clock high-speed internet access, personal computers, as well as access to a printer, and fax machine and is also the only free, all-wireless property in Waikiki with wireless internet access in all rooms for extra privacy, as well as in the hotel’s lobby, mezzanine and pool deck. After a long day in meetings, guests can stay fit and work up a sweat at the property’s fitness room, or take advantage of their in-room kitchen or kitchenette and whip up a quick and simple meal. To keep business professionals looking sharp, there is also coin-operated laundry on property as well as laundry and dry cleaning services available.

And after a busy day at work, guests can grab a bite at Waikiki Beach Walk® where dining options range from a casual meal at Cheeseburger Waikiki, Giovanni Pastrami, or Yard House, to more specialty dining at Kaiwa, Taormina, Ruth’s Chris Steak House, and Roy’s Waikiki.

Rates at Outrigger Luana Waikiki start at just $99 per night. Taxes are not included. Rates and special offers cannot be combined and are subject to change without notice. Restrictions may apply.

For reservations or information, call your preferred travel professional or Outrigger Hotels & Resorts toll free at 800-OUTRIGGER (1-800-688-7444) within the United States, Guam and Canada or visit www.outrigger.com.

Free Ping Pong Coaching & Exhibition Game

On October 5th Tuesday Alan Kaichi will give free "table tennis" coaching and will do an exhibition Ping Pong Session from 3:00 - 5:00 p.m. at Waikiki Community Center WCC. This special coaching and exhibition game is brought to WCC by Alan Kaichi - Aloha Games 2010 Triple Gold Champion in Table Tennis. Alan gold medaled in Men's Singles 40+, Men's Doubles 40+, and open elite singles.

Alan and three other expert players from the Palama Gymnasium Hawaii Table Tennis Club will have a short demo game with explanations on how to improve your shots. Alan is also bringing a ping pong "robot" used to feed balls and train players - this will be available to members who want to perfect their spin shots and speed returns. Information and samples of different types of paddles, rubber padding, grips and other equipment to improve your game, and where to obtain them will also be available at this special session.

There will be a second coaching session in January also - in preparation for the second annual WCC JR Ping Pong Tournament 2011 scheduled for February 11, 2011.

Ping Pong has been rated as the "World's Best Brain Sport" by Dr Daniel Amen in his book Making a Good Brain Great. "It is highly aerobic, uses upper and lower body, is great for eye-hand coordination and reflexes, and causes you to use many different areas of the brain at once... It is a little like aerobic chess. Plus, it causes very few head injuries. At the competitive level player can hit the ball in excess of ninety miles/hour." Keep your brain healthy - hone that edge: Make Ping Pong your habit. Join us at the WCC Oct. 5th for this special session!

Keep a look out when WCC host's the 2011 JR Ping Pong Tournament and other upcoming coaching sessions. If interested in table tennis aka ping pong be sure to visit WCC Tuesdays 3:00 -5:00 p.m. and Fridays 1:00 - 3:00 p.m. for ping pong sessions.

For further information call WCC at 923-1802. Complimentary parking is available while attending classes at WCC.
